Afterwhile

Dear, beloved school of ours,
When Time takes us away,
Will not the lonely soul return
In wind, or fog, or spray,
Or in the bursting buds of spring,
Or in the April rain?
We only know to be with thee
We will come back again;
Because of the great love we bear,
Perhaps someday we'll be
A ray of living sunlight,
To shine, dear school, on thee.

Class History of 1926

It has been said "there is nothing new under the sun," and Miss Oliver told us, among other things, that History repeats itself. When memory, though, carries us back over the years of our high school life, we are reminded of numerous experiences and events which seem new and unusual. Nor can we question these adages, for each of the three classes that we found here upon our entrance has left us a record of their high school days, and we find that their four years at Tennessee High were crowded with happenings very similar to those which we are prone to think new and unusual.

In September, 1922, we inflicted our presence, one hundred and eleven (strong), upon B. T. H. S. and matriculated as Freshmen. We were green, fresh and proud as only Freshies can be. Two weeks later we were still green, but our freshness had somewhat dwindled and our pride had received many a severe jolt. We struggled thru our Freshman year, we even survived our first exams—that is, most of us did. Mac King was our president during this period.

Exams alone were responsible for the depleted number that were Sophomores the next year, since the girls had not yet started to marry. By this time the feeling of responsibility was being felt by us as we were beginning to enter into school activities. We had tried out in football, basket-ball and baseball and altho at this early time few had made a letter, we were out and doing our best to help make winning teams. Then, too, some of us had been turning in 90's and 100's regularly in classes—for we were determined from the start to be an intellectual class. We had become acclimated and were beginning to regain some of the self-confidence of which we had been so suddenly deprived as Freshmen:
.....was our leader in our fight against obscurity while we were Sophomores.

The Junior year was one of bustling activity and pleasant recognition of our value to the school. We had armed! Without any outside aid, assisted only by Miss Owen, we accomplished things during this year of which we can well be proud, and which will long stand as examples worthy of imitation of examples of all future Junior Classes. We needed money to entertain the Class of '25. We sold candy, hot-dogs, ice-cream, pies, and Easter Eggs. Needing even more money than we had raised we decided to revive the Field Meet. This plan was enthusiastically received by the school; the athletes eagerly entered the various events.

Our newspapers gave us plenty of publicity and the merchants of Bristol responded to our requests that they donate prizes. Field Day was a big success. With all the money we had made during the year we took the Seniors to Big Creek for the annual Junior-Senior outing. We had also kept up the good work in Scholarship and athletics. Altho we did not yet look upon going to class as a pleasant means of spending forty-five minutes, we did take more interest than previously in what was going on during that time. Commencement brought the usual round and we watched another class take their diplomas, this time with unusual interest as we looked forward one year and tried to visualize ourselves—the Freshies of yesterday, the Seniors of tomorrow receiving our diplomas.

The fall of 1925 came in due time and again we made our way to school not with the doubts and fears of Freshmen, nor yet with the over-bearing superiority of the Sophs, but with honest pride that most of the race had been run and that only a few months separated us from Commencement Day. Jack Stone, who had been our Junior president was re-elected president early in the year. When we returned in September, improvements met our eye. While we had been away a new addition had been made to the building, and the athletic field graded and enlarged until now we have one of the best equipped schools in the state. On our new field was developed the best football team since 1921. Four Seniors were on this team—the first to win from Johnson City in five years. Many of our members had dropped from the ranks leaving vacancies that were hard to fill. Yet 60 of the 111 who had entered as Freshmen have met and overcome all the obstacles that confront one traveling the rocky road to knowledge. To all our teachers, and especially to our sponsors, Miss Owen in our Junior year, and Miss Anderson in our Senior year, we are grateful for the help they have given us, for without it we know that we could not have succeeded.

Thus, most of our life as a class is behind us! Four years we have helped, and seen Tennessee's faithful student body and faculty work, with patience and love, for her success and prosperity. Now that we are about to join them, we would ask for a double portion of that spirit which is so characteristic of Tennessee High's graduates and, entering the great School of Life would give our best efforts toward adding honor to the Alma Mater we have learned to love and respect.

—Billy Davis.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of the Tennessee High School, in the City of Bristol, State of Tennessee, on this the 31st day of May in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred Twenty-six, being of sound mind and of a generous disposition, do hereby make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills and promising never to make another.

Burem wills his Firing Red to Duard Ruth. To Otye Webb, Ruby Marion leaves her space on the bulletin board for broad-casting love letters. Prophecy of Class of '26

Do you believe in dreams? If you do, come with me and I shall take you to the Land of Dreams. Here we shall visit the cities, seeking my classmates of dear old Tennessee High.

In the first city we find our beloved president. Alas! His fate is sad, for Jack no longer lives alone as Julia is the sweet hen-pecker. During a pleasant half-hour spent with them we learn that Nita Kensinger, Anna Lee Ager, and Clyde Vestal are teachers at the "New Woman's College," on the planet of Mars. Also Gladys Rutherford, Roberta Garret and Mary Sparger as dietitians in the same college, are trying to discover some food values in the vegetation there. We then go to a theatre where we see Billy Davis and J. T. McIntyre, world famous comedians and fancy dancers.

Let us now go on to the next city. Here we find Eugene Pardue who is a telephone linesman. One day he received a severe shock when he overheard the conversation of Reion Campbell and Ruth Payne, two chorus girls. Here also we see Elizabeth Fugate, Ruby Sells, Elizabeth Cowan and Beulah Sparger, who have a camp for girls. This camp is a very popular one because they teach "How To Get Thin in Ten Days."

As we enter the next city we pass a wonderful building. On inquiring what this building is, we are told that it is the art school which Amelia Davis has established. Her pupils furnish the Color Comic Section for our leading newspapers. I asked Amelia what had become of our friend Elizabeth Newland and am startled when she tells me that she is the president of a Railroad Company and most of her time is spent issuing passes across Oak Street Bridge. We all wonder to whom!

In the next city we find Albert Cowan, Elizabeth Bachman and Elinor Andrews who have been rewarded for their faithful work on the Annual with a seat in the "Easy Chair" on the staff of the following magazines: "Atlantic Monthly," "True Story" and "Whiz-Bang." They tell us that Ruby Marion and her private secretary, Lucille Musslewhite, have just been there. Ruby has written a book entitled "Revealed Love Letters." We see here also Elizabeth Harr writing for the "Ladies' Home Journal," and I might incidentally mention that W. B. Cash is also a member of the staff.

A pleasant surprise awaits us in the next town where we find Louise Brown who is converting one M. D. to her way of thinking. In picking up a daily paper here we notice the picture of one of our classmates. It is Eleanor Smith, who has been proclaimed the best dressed woman in America. On going to the opera tonight we hear Mary Elizabeth Collins, who has a wonderful voice with a wide range from "Greenland's Icy Mountain to India's Coral Strand." Before leaving this city, we pass a new military academy, which is the "Never-Get-Through Military Academy." We learn that Johnnie Esser is coaching basket-ball in this school.

When we enter the next city, we see a new and beautiful street, on which Martha Carlton, Willie Gray Jarrett, Katherine Keller, Lillian Owens and Louise

THE CADMEA

Love are living. I could hardly understand it until I remembered how interested these girls were in the opposite sex even in high school days. In this town we also meet Johnnie Lipscomb, who is a member of Congress, and Addie Belle Hitt is trying to persuade him to establish a National Highway between Bristol and West Point.

However, we cannot tarry here; let us go in to the next city and see what awaits us there. We see there an up-to-date grocery store. Scott Shumate and John Waterman have bought out the Clarence Saunders, "Sole Owner of My Name" chain of grocery stores. As we are leaving this city we see a large farm, which is owned by the O'Dells, Herman and Paul, who are going to get the $2,000 given by Congress for the production of seedless tomatoes. Herman tells us that his sister, Gladys, Ida Shipley and Gladys Seneker are beloved school ma'rms, who trudge from their farms to school. They are trying to train the children in the way they should go, but as usual the teachers are woefully disappointed.

We are carried in our dreams to another city where we hear of Jasper Wilson and Billy Phipps as flying cops. Their duty is to arrest aeroplanes which are going over two hundred miles an hour. They tell us that W. A. Whittaker also lives here. He is the laziest man in town and is travelling with a 2-ring circus. Walking further down the Main Street of this city, we meet Joe Christian, who has never married because he was in love with all the girls and could only marry one, and Joe Delaney, who is called "Dr. Pill-Box Delaney." The latter is very unhappy being a doctor because he was evidently cut out to be a great orator.

As we come to the next city, we receive the shock of our life since we find it is dear old Bristol. That stately building which we see is no other than our much-beloved High School. Here we find Kathryn Millard and Vivian Hawk, who are coaching basket-ball and Della Vest and Joanna Miller, who have come back to Tennessee High to do research work. They have found the Latin derivation of "vociferate." On passing the court house a terrible uproar comes from one of the committee rooms. H. S. Burem, Scott Booher, Cody Vance and Franklin Groseclose have a very important question to settle and if they settle it, I think their names ought to be in the Hall of Fame. This question is "Bristol's Water Question." David Dishner is chairman of this efficient body. Our next stop is King College, which is one of the largest in the South and now has co-eds. A young woman who is the dean is leaving one of the dormitories and who do you suppose this is? Why, none other than Thelma Williams!

Now, you have been with me through the Land of Dreams and have seen the future of my classmates. So I hope that each one of them will find that the "Way to Happiness" is—

A little more kindness,
A little less creed,
A little more giving,
A little less greed,
A little more smile,
A little less frown,
A little more kicking
A man when he's down,

A little more "we"
And a little less "I",
A little more laugh,
A little less cry,
A little more flowers
On the pathway of life,
And a flower on graves
At the end of strife.

—Ethelyn Elam,
Class Prophet.

Senior Class Song

After four years of joys and sorrows,
We have reached our goal at last,
But as we live in future morrows,
We'll not forget your part in our past.

CHORUS

Here's to our Alma Mater,
Of whom we must soon take our leave;
Here's to dear Tennessee High School,
A school ever loved as you see.
And we the Class of Twenty-six, as we say good-bye,
Remind the future Seniors to keep the standards high.

So, to the Class of Twenty-seven,
Our shield and axes we do give,
To use these axes and this shield
As symbols of the life they'll love.

Words and Music by ADDIE BELLE HITT.

CHARLES ALLEN (Coach)..... Crappy

"Crappy," hailed by the whole team as one of the best coaches we have ever had, not only showed his ability to develop a good team but also won the admiration and friendship of every player.

JOHN LIPSCOMB (Captain), '26..... Johnny

Height, 5 ft., 8 in. Weight, 158 lbs.

John Lipscomb, captain of the '25 football team, was not only a good player but proved to be one of the best captains B. T. H. S. has ever had. We will always remember him as "hard-hitting Johnny" and the mainstay of the team.

J. T. MCINTYRE, '26..... J. T.

Manager. Height, 5 ft., 8 in. Weight, 158 lbs.

J. T. was always on the look-out for the boys and trying to take care of them. He showed wonderful ability to manage a team.

ED WILSON, '27..... Tubby

Full-back. Height, 5 ft., 7 in. Weight, 185 lbs.

As a defensive and offensive player, "Tubby" was a genius. He was always ready to make a gain and was chosen to general the Team of '26.

THE CADMEA

RICHARD HELMS, '28.....Dick

Guard. Height, 5 ft., 10 in. Weight, 158 lbs.

This was "Dick's" first year on the Varsity, nevertheless, he proved himself to be a splendid defensive and offensive player.

ROBERT EDWARDS, '28.....Bob

Tackle. Height, 6 ft., 1 in. Weight, 179 lbs.

"Bob" was one man that teams dreaded to go up against. He was one who could always get the jump on his man. We hope that "Bob" will be back with us next year.

DON KING, '27.....Don

Half-back. Height, 5 ft., 7 in. Weight, 149 lbs.

Don was a hard fighter and a dependable player. This was his first year but he showed up like a veteran.

CHARLES LOWE, '28.....Charlie

Guard. Height, 5 ft., 6 in. Weight, 145 lbs.

During every game "Charlie" showed that he was a good defensive and offensive player. This was his first year on the Varsity and he will be back with the Tennessee High squad next year.

WILLIAM DAVIS, '26.....Billy

End. Height, 5 ft., 7 in. Weight, 152 lbs.

"Billy" is a man that can be depended upon when needed. He is good at receiving passes and an excellent defensive player.

JOHN ESSER, '26.....Johnny

End. Height, 5 ft., 6 in. Weight, 149 lbs.

"Johnny," playing his last year in high school, showed that he was an excellent defensive and offensive man. He was always alert and on the job.

PETE WILSON, '29.....Petey

Quarter-back. Height, 5 ft., 5 in. Weight, 140 lbs.

"Petey" proved to be a wonderful quarter-back. His long gains were responsible for many of Tennessee's victories. His undying fighting-spirit inspired the necessary determination and pep into the team in many of the games played.

JAMES LAWRENCE, '27.....Jim

Guard. Height, 5 ft., 11 in. Weight, 160 lbs.

Although this was Jim's first year on the Varsity he proved himself worthy of his position. He was a good defensive and offensive player and gave us some real exhibitions of good punting. We lose "Jim" this year because he is going to another school and at the same time we lose a good man.

THE CADMEA

HERMAN SMITH, '30.....Funny

Half-back. Height, 5 ft., 9 in. Weight, 156 lbs.

This was "Funny's" first year on the Varsity, but he showed up like a veteran. He was a good line-plunger and was also good to run the ends.

MAURICE CONN, '28.....Conn

Center. Height, 5 ft., 11 in. Weight, 185 lbs.

"Conn" always had the fight and grit that it takes to make a football player. His main hobby was to break through the opponents' line and block punts.

ERNEST KING, '27.....Ernie

Half-back. Height, 5 ft., 5 in. Weight, 135 lbs.

This was "Ernie's" first year on the Varsity. All who saw him play said, "He's little but loud." He will be back with us next year.

ASA LINDAMOOD, '27.....Asa

End. Height, 5 ft., 8 in. Weight, 148 lbs.

This was Asa's first year on the Varsity, but he proved himself worthy of his position. He was a fast and excellent player at end and is unusually good at receiving passes. He will be back next year.

This was "Stoney's" first year on the Varsity. He always had the fight and determination to win. He was one who could always break through the opponents' line and down the man with the ball.

FRED SMITH, '28.....Fred

Tackle. Height, 5 ft., 8 in. Weight, 158 lbs.

Another new man shows up good. Fred, although little, played splendid ball at a big man's position. Great things are expected of Fred in '26.

HOMER NAVE, '28.....Whitey

Guard and End. Height, 5 ft., 7 in. Weight, 153 lbs.

"Whitey" was a new man but he certainly gave a real exhibition of football. Although small, he was hard to get by and was a hard fighter. "Whitey" will more than likely be back with us next year.

JOE TALBERT, '27.....Dry

Guard. Height, 5 ft., 8 in. Weight, 148 lbs.

Joe is another new man. Speaking about a man plowing open the opponent's line, this was Joe's favorite pastime. He will be back with us next year.

Apologies to Celia Thaxter's
"Sandpiper"

Across these classic halls we flit,
My weary high school friends and I,
We slowly gather bit by bit
The scraps of knowledge, bleached and dry.
The students reach their hands for it,
The teachers rave, grade low, grade high,
As up and down the halls we flit,
My weary high school friends and I.

Schoolmates, where will we be next year,
When college storms break furiously?
The fires of knowledge there burn bright
To that warm shelter can we fly?
But even then we need not fear,
Though learning's paths run far or nigh,
For hid we not within our hearts
Good things and true at Tennessee High?

Editors may toil and work
"Till finger tips are sore,
But there remains some fish to say,
"I've heard that joke before."

MR. HAWK (rapping on the desk)—"Order, boys, order!"
STUDENT (just awakening)—"Ham sandwich and a cup of coffee."

JOHN ESSER—"Time out! Lost anudder tooth!"
ALLAN—"Next time swallow 'em; don't be holding up the game."

DON—"Where did you get that duck?"
PETE—"Oh, on a wild goose chase."

MR. HAWK—"How many make a dozen?"
CLASS—"Twelve."
MR. HAWK—"How many make a million?"
CLASS—"Darn few."

MISS LYNN—"Now, why were you late for your class?"
SUB-FRESH—"It began before I got there."

MISS OLIVER (in hardware store)—"Quick! Give me a mouse trap, I want to catch a train."

The meanest man in the world is the man who proposes to an old maid over the phone and after she has accepted, says it is the wrong number.

RUBY MARION—"Nadine married before she completed her education."
KATHERINE KELLER—"The same could be said of any one who married."

MISS OLIVER (reading)—"Lost, a purse by a lady with initials on back."
Dear me, is tattooing in style?

If courtship is an institution then marriage is a finishing school.

JOSEPHINE MASENGILL (in future)—"When I sing I get tears in my eyes."
INSTRUCTOR—"Stuff cotton in your ears."

CANDY! BOYS! CANDY!

High School Boys, when you buy a box of candy ask what's inside, and when you open it compare the quality and see what she says. You'll never buy any other kind except Huyler's or Hollingsworth.

VIRGINIA COPENHAVER—"Oh, Jimmy, that candy just makes my mouth water."

JIMMIE RESER—"Well, here's a blotter."

MISS OLIVER—"That man asks more questions—some of them I just can't answer, and it's so embarrassing."

MISS OWEN—"Personal, is he?"

MISS OLIVER—"No, he's Math. professor."

MR. FOSTER—"There are too many students in school these days."

MISS OLIVER—"Too many what?"

"STONEY" (going down an aisle in a movie)—"I can't see."

VOICE (addicted to sarcasm)—"Wha' dye come here for then?"

MARGARET—"What is worse than raining cats and dogs?"

MARTHA—"Hailing street cars."

Our idea of a poet is a man who will sit up all night and write an "Ode to Sleep."

Billy Davis' idea of a mean joke is to receive a postal card saying, "Enclosed find ten dollars I owe you."

MR. FOSTER—"You can't sleep in my class."

HENRY CLARDY—"I know it, I been trying for half a hour."

JOE DELANEY—"I study like a fool."

JOHN LIPSCOMB—"Naturally."

JUDITH BYRD—"Tell me what you think of me."

SHIRLEY SELFE—"I can't put it in words."

JUDITH BYRD—"Oh, you insulting thing!"

VIRGINIA COPENHAVER—"I am sure that blind man over there leads a romantic life."

CLAUDE DICKENSON—"Why so?"

VIRGINIA COPENHAVER—"Well, love is blind, you know."

MISS ANDERSON—"I suppose you have your career selected?"

MARY ELIZABETH COLLINS—"Why, yes, but we hadn't intended to announce it before commencement."

JIM LAWRENCE—"What did he say to Mr. Foster when he was fired?"

SAM THACKER—"Oh, he congratulated him on putting out such fine men."

JULIA—"Is that you, dear?"

JACK—"I sure hope so."

BOB EDWARDS—"What do you mean he died like a barber?"

"MONK" JONES—"Oh, he cut off all his heirs."

JOHN LIPSCOMB—"Where did you get the plot for your second novel?"

BILLY DAVIS—"From the film version of the first."

Bob Edwards sold the Life a joke for three dollars, and then spent the money trying to find in which copy it was published.

BILLY PHIPPS—"Well, sir, my shot gun let out a roar and there lay a dead wolf ahead of us!"

ERNEST KING—"How long had it been dead?"

MARTHA CARLTON—"Why is flattery like peroxide?"

ELEANOR SMITH—"Because it turns many a woman's head."

BERK—"Have you heard Sam play the piano? He's great."

JIM—"That's nothing; it takes two hands for him to play and I can with one finger."

Jack Stone was so dumb in American History that he thought the Mayflower-Compact was a dorine.

W. B. CASH—"Suppose I asked you to marry me?"

ELIZABETH HARR—"I'd try to be engaging."

The reason we don't like conceited people is because we are too interested in ourselves.

An old South Carolina darky was sent to the hospital in Charleston. One of the gentle, black-robed sisters put a thermometer in his mouth to take his temperature. Presently, when the doctor made his rounds, he said:

"Well, Mose, have you had any nourishment?"

"A lady done gimme a piece of glass ter suck, boss, but I'se still powerful hungry."

MRS. BERGHAUSER—"Now for tomorrow take the life of Shakespeare."

BRILLIANT STUDENT—"How?"

In Choosing Your Store to Supply Your Wants

You engage a thoroughly reliable and earnest service. We accept your patronage as a very serious responsibility.

Our entire merchandising organization makes a continuous effort to study the wants of our public as well as the resources of manufacturers, so that we may present to our customers the very newest and best merchandise of every variety, selected with fullest knowledge of the requirements and tastes of the people whom we serve.

We are vastly more interested in giving satisfaction with the goods you buy, than we are in selling more merchandise. We are not seeking to make larger profits today, but to build a constituency of pleased customers who will make a permanent institution of this store in the city, because of the timely helpful service that is rendered by our organization in this community.

These are the days when our stocks are at their best, and we especially invite you to come and look over our merchandise now. You may depend absolutely upon everything being the best quality available at its price, and every price the lowest at which goods of equal quality can be sold.

QUESTION BOX

Fans probably came into use when it was the custom of the deceased one's wife to sit on his funeral pyre.

Yes, my idea of an inconsiderate girl is one who gives a flower to a fellow with hay fever.

No, Billy, battleships are not brought into port by tugs of war.

Yes, Sam you will always find a lot of questionable characters around a Bureau of Information.

No, Jimmy, Joan of Arc was not the wife of Noah and neither is Scotland Yard a playground.

A gown is a dress at twice the price.

No, Elizabeth, a parachute is not a double-barreled shotgun!

Yes, even a fool can ask questions a wise man can't answer.

The most common disease today is "I" trouble.

No, John, LaFollette did not fight in the Revolutionary War.

Yes, many a man has married for love and then found out that his wife had no money.

The best definition for FLIRTATION is: A spoon with nothing in it.

No, Jack, forceps are not muscles in your forearms.

Yes, it isn't what a girl knows that bothers us, but how she learned it.

After a fellow graduates from school his diploma isn't worth one-half so much as the size of his head on the day he got it.

JACK HULING—"I say, old man, can't you take a joke?"

JOHN LIPSCOMB—"Sure, where do you want to go?"

A bird in the hand is bad table manners.

FRANCES SWADLEY (arriving late)—"What is the score?"

ANSWER—"Nothing, nothing."

FRANCES—"Goody, I haven't missed a thing."

J. T. McINTYRE—"Do you serve fish here?"

WAITER—"Certainly, we cater to everyone."

"Rasmus, why do you look so sad?"

"I done left open my door last night an' all mah chickens have gone off home."

MARGARET—"Can you beat it? Now they'll be selling us back the hair we have had bobbed."

OPTICIAN—"Now tell me what the letters are on the first line."

CANDIDATE—"Where's the chart?"

J. T. McINTYRE—"Don't you think the backfield is fine?"

MARGARET DELANEY—"Yes, the entire grounds are beautiful."

JOHN ESSER—"My ten fingers."

AILENE PETERS—"In what way?"

ERNEST KING—"Because your eyes continually flit from one person to another."

MARTHA—"I think those Oxford bags are ridiculous."

MARGARET—"I prefer a plain bag myself."

JULIA—"I dropped my watch in the river last spring. Well, I found it yesterday and it was still running."

JACK—"Go way and die. No watch will run that long."

JULIA—"No, but rivers will."

"How is this for using your head," said Virginia Copenhaver as she wiped her fountain pen through her nice blond hair.
