It has been the sincere desire of the annual staff to present on these pages a true picture of the parade of our high school activities.

If in the years to come it serves to bring to you some fond recollections of your high school days, we shall have achieved our aspiration.

DEDICATION

To those friends, the business and professional men of Bristol, who have given unstintingly of their time, energy, and material resources to the many activities of Tennessee High School, the Cadmea of 1936 is dedicated.

CLASS POEM

Above, a distant sky, its edges bending down,
 A restless sea below, enraged to foam,
 And midway, rests a home of beaten stone.
 Awaiting still, there group the eyrie 'round,
 A brood of eaglets, awed by strength just found;
 Blue sky smiles, "Come!" the sulky seas all moan.
 An eaglet hurls himself to space—has flown!
 A note of blessing from the ancient crags resound.
 Shall we, the seniors, pass this crucial test?
 Shall we success in powerful flight attain,
 Or sink into the dismal sea of doom?
 Strive on! Strive on! nor ever shall we rest.
 On mighty wings, success we'll strive to gain;
 The ancient crags of Fate shall bless us soon.

—BARCLAY MCGHEE.

CLASS HISTORY

"Backward, turn, backward,
Oh time in thy flight,
And make us all subs again,
Just for tonight."

The fall of '31 was the real beginning—wasn't it, seniors—for it was during this term that we got lost in the halls between classes and had double lunch periods. It was this year, too, that we were introduced to Miss Lynn's math class, a class so interesting that sometimes it was held as late as five o'clock in the afternoon.

The spring term of '32 ended in a blaze of glory; we had completed one year at B. T. H. S.

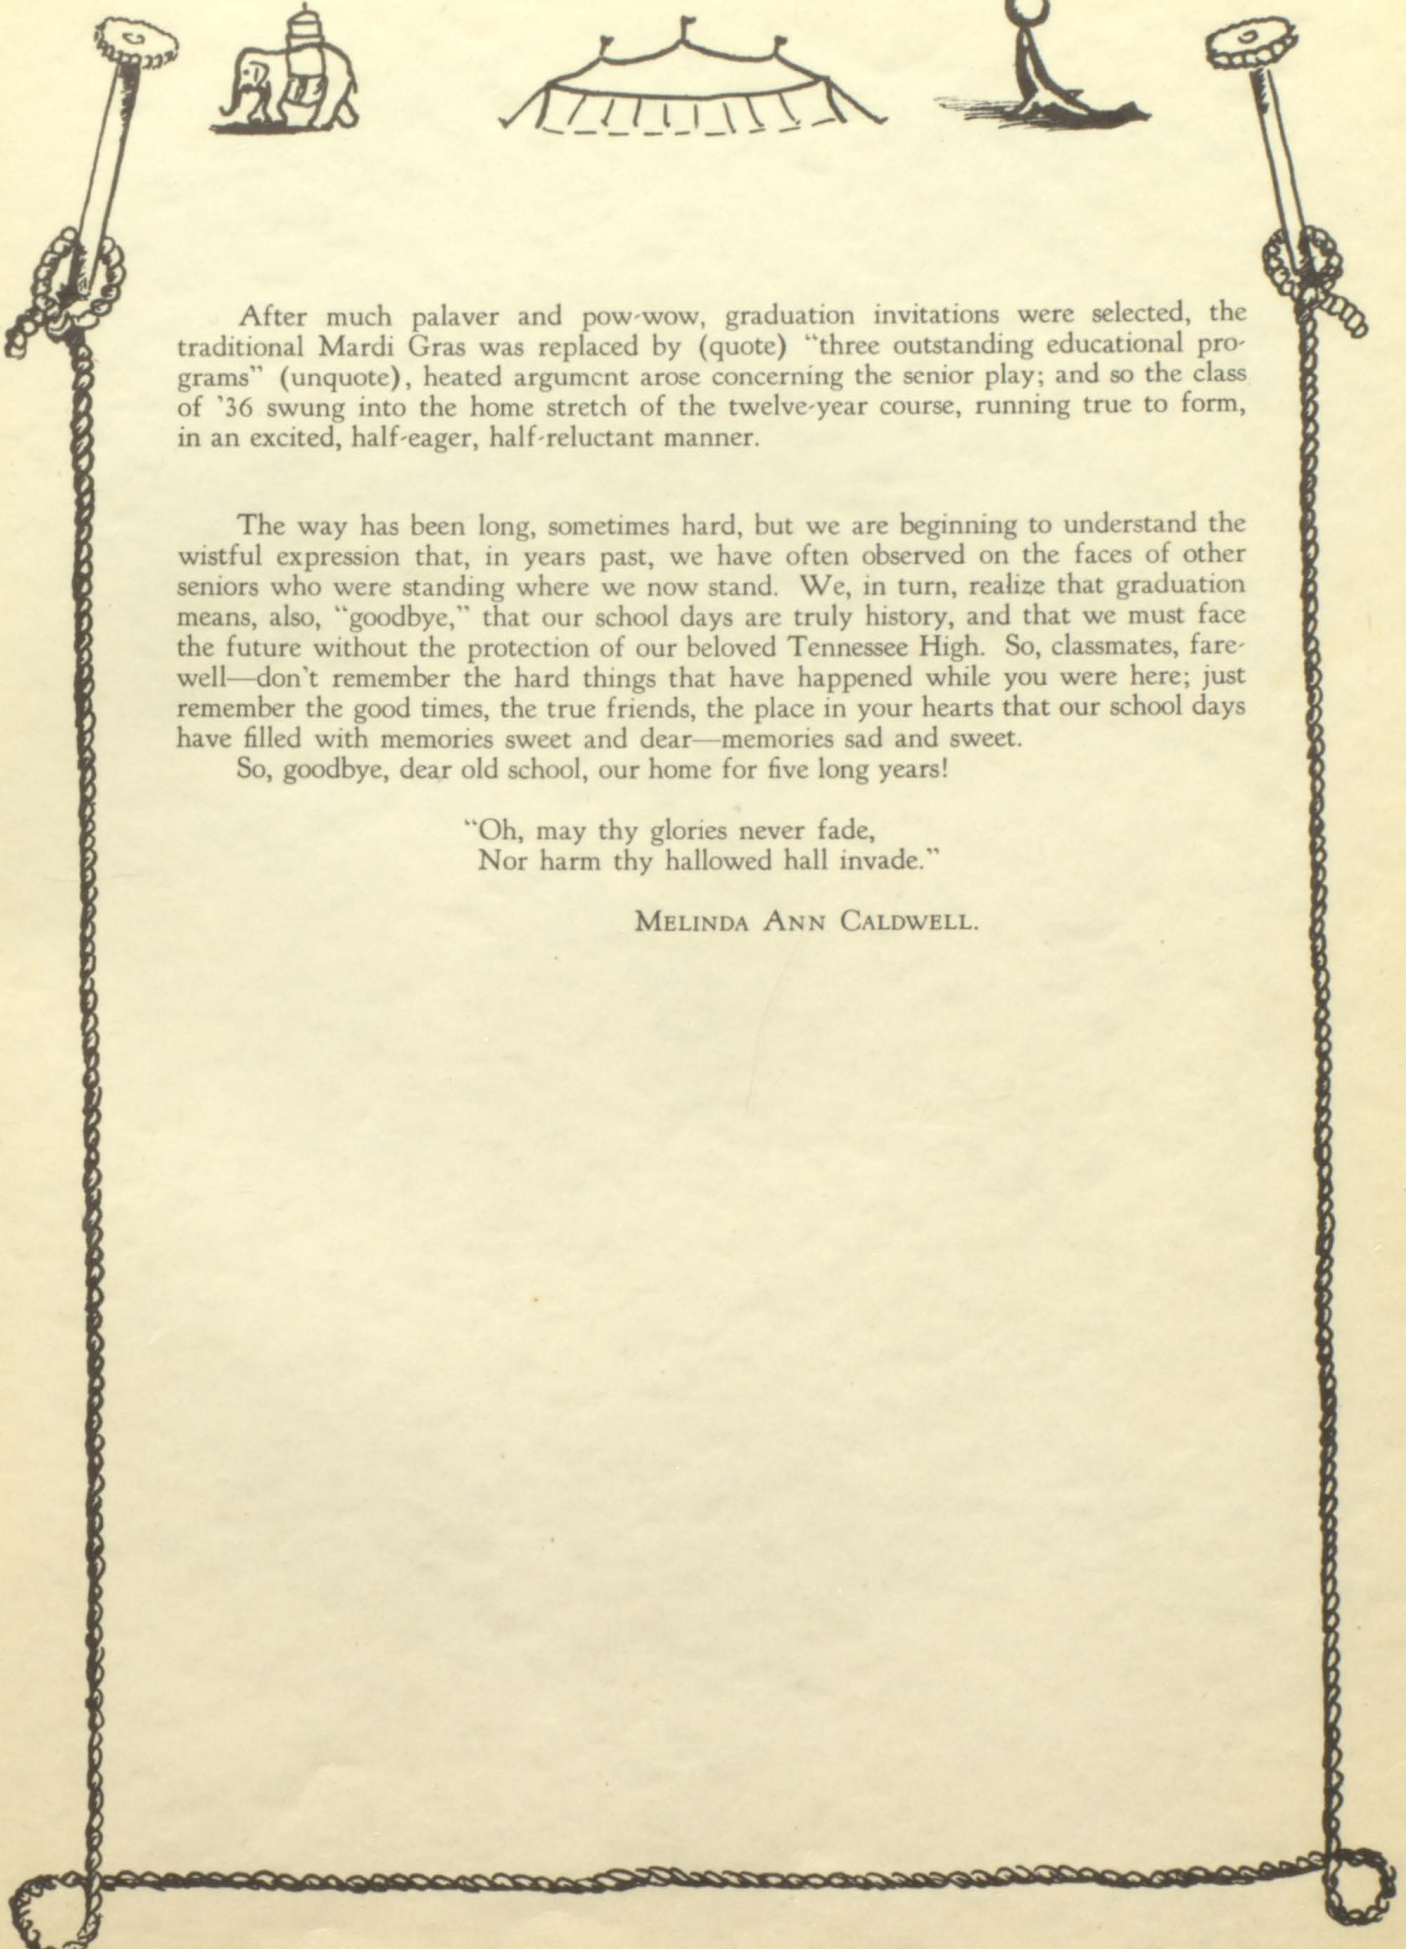

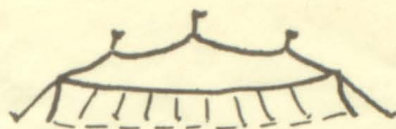

When September came around, we came back to school bursting with pride over the fact that we were freshmen now. Our bubble of self-satisfaction was pricked, however, when we were spoken to in Latin! Ah, me! Woeful day! But the fact that we were permitted to sit across the aisle from the haughty seniors bolstered up the small bit of pride left to us.

Our sophomore year is to be remembered as a gala time, during which the halls of the school were cluttered with paint buckets, stepladders, and scaffolding. However, the highlight of this year was the fire! The most comical sight on the day of the great conflagration was the male members of the faculty, with their trouser legs rolled up, swabbing the halls with long brooms.

With the fall of '34 came the inspiring realization that at last we were "upper classmen." Then came a sad piece of news—the juniors would not be allowed to go on the excursion trip to Washington. This was to be a privilege granted to "Seniors Only." But we consoled ourselves with a huge junior outing at Cherokee. Remember how it rained, and how a few hardy (or foolish) ones went swimming anyway? Remember all the good eats, the charades, the big square dance in the pavilion, and (I blush to mention it) the talking contest.

September, 1935—at last we were seniors! We had reached the dizzy height! Our first public appearance as Seniors was in our Christmas chapel program, when paper snow fell in such abundance that it practically obliterated the whole class.

After the Christmas holidays we held our last class election and chose for president Rollin Post, for vice-president, James Rhea, for secretary, Virginia Parrish, for treasurer, Barclay McGhee, and for sergeant-at-arms, Norman "Bus" Masengill.

After much palaver and pow-wow, graduation invitations were selected, the traditional Mardi Gras was replaced by (quote) "three outstanding educational programs" (unquote), heated argument arose concerning the senior play; and so the class of '36 swung into the home stretch of the twelve-year course, running true to form, in an excited, half-eager, half-reluctant manner.

The way has been long, sometimes hard, but we are beginning to understand the wistful expression that, in years past, we have often observed on the faces of other seniors who were standing where we now stand. We, in turn, realize that graduation means, also, "goodbye," that our school days are truly history, and that we must face the future without the protection of our beloved Tennessee High. So, classmates, farewell—don't remember the hard things that have happened while you were here; just remember the good times, the true friends, the place in your hearts that our school days have filled with memories sweet and dear—memories sad and sweet.

So, goodbye, dear old school, our home for five long years!

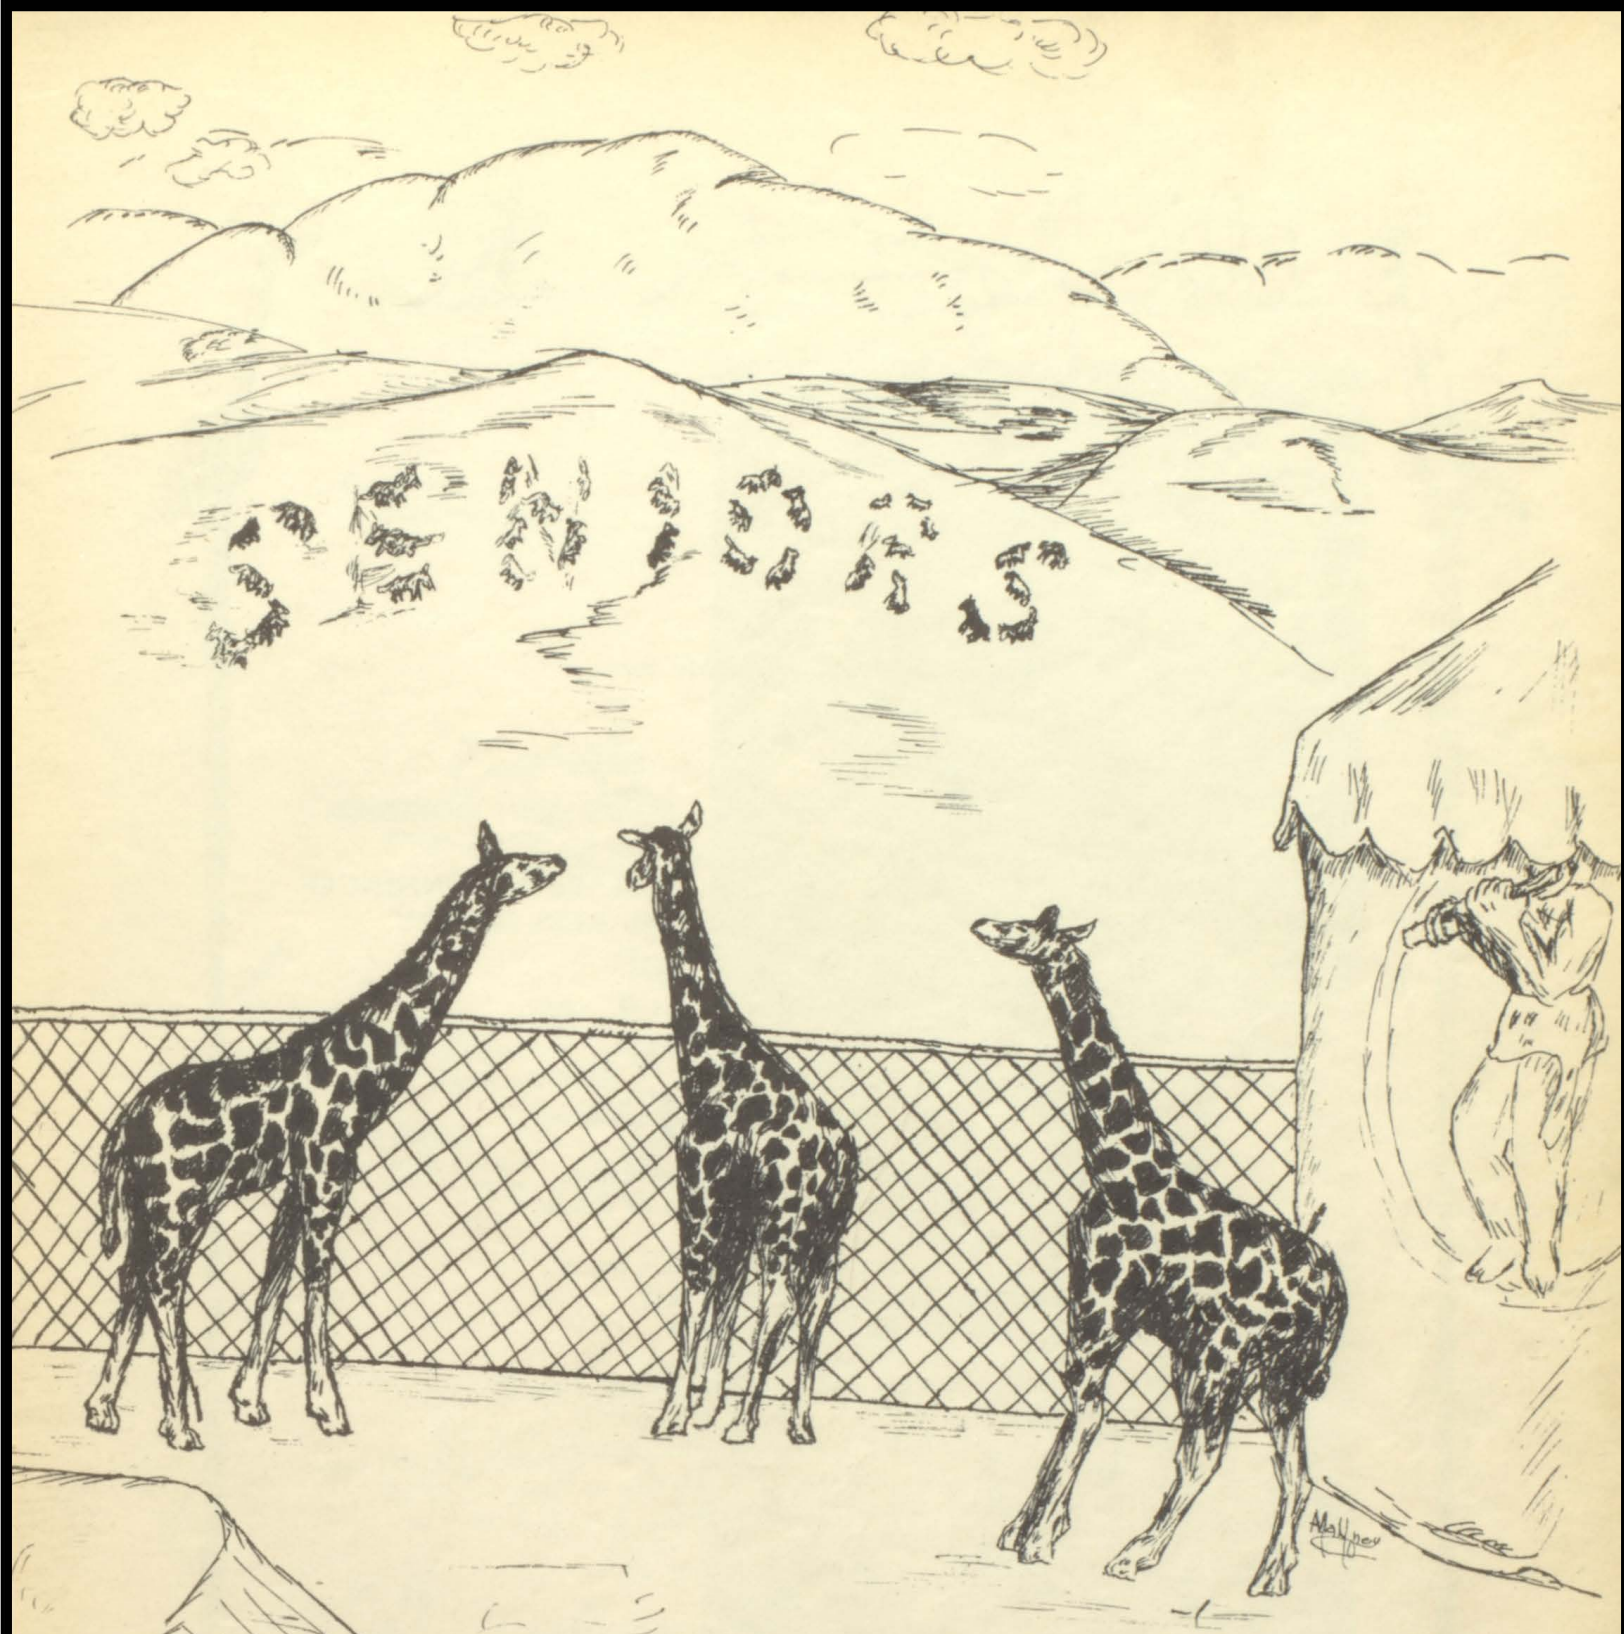

"Oh, may thy glories never fade,
Nor harm thy hallowed hall invade."

MELINDA ANN CALDWELL.

CLASS POEM

We have our hopes, our dreams divine to live;
 We dance with Pan the flow'ry path of youth,
 Assuring us life has so much to give.
 While confident these misty dreams are truth
 We blithely laugh along the starlit way,
 And vaguely wonder at our lives afar
 With hazy eyes. And wonder when the day
 Will come when we will find the heav'nly star
 To light the path for us. The time is near
 When we approach the brink of worldly strife,
 But do not search, the Star is ever here
 Illumining the path and blessing life.
 Enshrouded in faith He will lift us up
 On high, to reach His over-brimming cup.

—CHARLOTTE SENTER.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

This year Tennessee experienced only a mediocre season, winning five games and losing five. The Vikings rose to the heights when they held the highly touted Kingsport, Indians, Big Six Champions, to a 19-7 count.

During his second year, Coach Bricker put out a team of which all Bristol could truly be proud. The won and lost column might not have pleased everyone, but the boys performed like true sportsmen throughout the season. Due to the efforts of Coach Bricker and Assistant Coach McClelland the eleven was provided with the best equipment that any Tennessee High team has ever had.

The sportsmanlike conduct and excellent spirit of the squad were so evident that many favorable comments were addressed to them. The school received a cup, presented by the approved officials of this region, for displaying the best sportsmanship in the Appalachian section this year. Other schools that have been the recipients of this award are Elizabethton, Jonesboro, Morristown, Kingsport, and Erwin.

This year the students and the sports lovers of the town backed the Vikings better than ever before. After the game with Kingsport, an Indian supporter remarked that Tennessee High had one of the best cheering sections and the cleanest playing teams in this section.

Unforgettable moments during the season: Furlow's broken field running against Erwin—the disappointment that came after the first loss of the season to Johnson City—Freddie Nidiffer getting knocked cold at Mountain City, with "Greyhound" Vance playing heads-up ball, and John Anderson displaying brilliant defensive work in the same game—the goal-line stand and touch-down pass in the Kingsport fray—the decisive victory over Virginia, which was well earned in freezing weather.

LETTERMEN

Anderson, Captain—Hard plunging, best defensive fullback in Big Six. All City. Played his last year for the Maroon and White.

Nidiffer, Co-Captain—Freddie was one of the best field generals Tennessee has seen in recent years. Senior-All City.

Morris, Guard—All Conference and All City. Joe's vicious tackling and excellent blocking will certainly be missed next year.

Love, Center—"Bloom," playing under handicaps in his Senior year, developed real ability as a pivot man.

McGhee, End—All City—excelled as a blocker and defensive man. Proved in his last year that he was rugged and could take it.

Wilson, Back—Although not playing all the season as a regular, he made the varsity backs step for their positions.

Lowry, Tackle—Captain-elect and All City. Played in opponent's backfield most of the time and made himself felt by all who opposed him.

Cole, Tackle—Played sixty minutes of good football each game. 196 pound Tackle.

East, Tackle—Rosey really played hard and put out everything he had. We'll expect great things from him next year.

Peoples—"Freshman John" has already played two years of varsity football a valuable man to have on any team.

Phipps—Despite an injured collar bone, Carl played outstanding ball when on the field.

Ingram—Tommy stopped 'em cold around his end. Received honorable mention for All Conference, and he made the All City eleven.

Hicks—Made his letter the first year out. Was excellent understudy for Morris at guard.

Vance—Proved he could take it as well as dish it out. He is expected to go places next season.

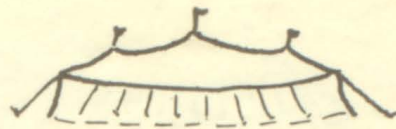

Harkins—All City halfback. One of the most versatile backs Tennessee has ever had. Fine punter, excellent passer, hard runner, and capable defensive man. Co-Captain, '36.

Wood—Proved apt understudy for tackles. Played "heads-up" and was one of the most willing workers on the squad.

Thomas—Fleet halfback. Fastest man on the squad. Has three more years of football. Much can be expected of little Billy in the future.

Furlow—Letterman for two years. Halfback. Most feared runner on the squad, and an adept pass receiver. Scored three-fourths of the team's points.

BASKETBALL REVIEW

This year when the season opened there were six lettermen returning to play basketball.

After a few preliminary games in the local section a barnstorming tour of Ohio and Kentucky was taken during the Christmas holidays. Approximately 15,000 people witnessed the Vikings tie up with the foremost hardwood artists of the nation. Our boys proved popular with all the fans, and the results of the games were pleasing to the Tennessee supporters. After such a start, it is hoped that this custom may continue.

The Brickerites, immediately upon returning from their northern tour, began their conquest in the Bix Six. On the whole the conference season was a success as only Erwin and Kingsport topped the Vikings. The team reached its peak when it defeated the mighty Kingsport Maroons 25-23.

In the 16th District Tournament, where the best basketball in the state is played, the Vikings finished third, after having been defeated only by Erwin by a score of 38 to 37. As a result of the showing at Kingsport, the boys were invited to participate in the annual regional tournament in Knoxville.

To climax the year in grand style, Tennessee, after losing the first game to Virginia, came back and won the City Championship for the first time in three years.

Next year we can expect great things from the team, since five lettermen will return. Those who received letters in basketball were Captain T. F. Morrell, Fred Nidiffer, "Dutch" Rhea, Bill Furlow, Hugh Phipps, Carl Phipps, J. C. Phipps, Graham Vance, and Louis Harkins.

REVIEW OF GIRLS' SPORTS

Under the supervision of Miss Lucile Wyman, a fifth successful year of Intra-mural Athletics has rolled around. The point system, which has previously proved so popular, again took its place as the outstanding plan of the year.

The girls responded quickly and eagerly to the athletic roll call at the beginning of the school year. Full of pep and ready for plenty of keen competition from the class teams, they started the season off with full speed. Margaret Moore was elected general manager of sports and Helen Harkleroad, assistant manager. The outstanding list of sports decided on to lead the girls through an interesting year was as follows: fieldball, basketball, baseball, volley-ball, tennis, tumbling, hiking, bicycling, skating, horseback riding, and recreational games.

With all stiff joints oiled and energy stored away for the enemy, the girls started the year off with a brand new game, fieldball, which was introduced by Miss Wyman to take the place of kickball. An upperclass team, consisting of the combined sophomore-junior-senior teams, was formed. Janice Kensinger was elected captain of the combined group with Elizabeth Henninger as manager. The freshmen elected Carmen Lilly captain, with Margaret McCary as manager, and the subs chose June Godsey as their captain and manager. The fieldball finals came at last, with the combined upper classmen downing all opponents and winning the tournament. A varsity was formed, consisting of the outstanding players on the fieldball teams; namely, Margaret Hart, Helen Harkleroad, Elizabeth Henninger, Katherine Fogarty, "Tubby" Stone, Carmen Lilly, Helen Wells, Ada Lynn Hawkins, Dorothy Baker, and Mary Blevins.

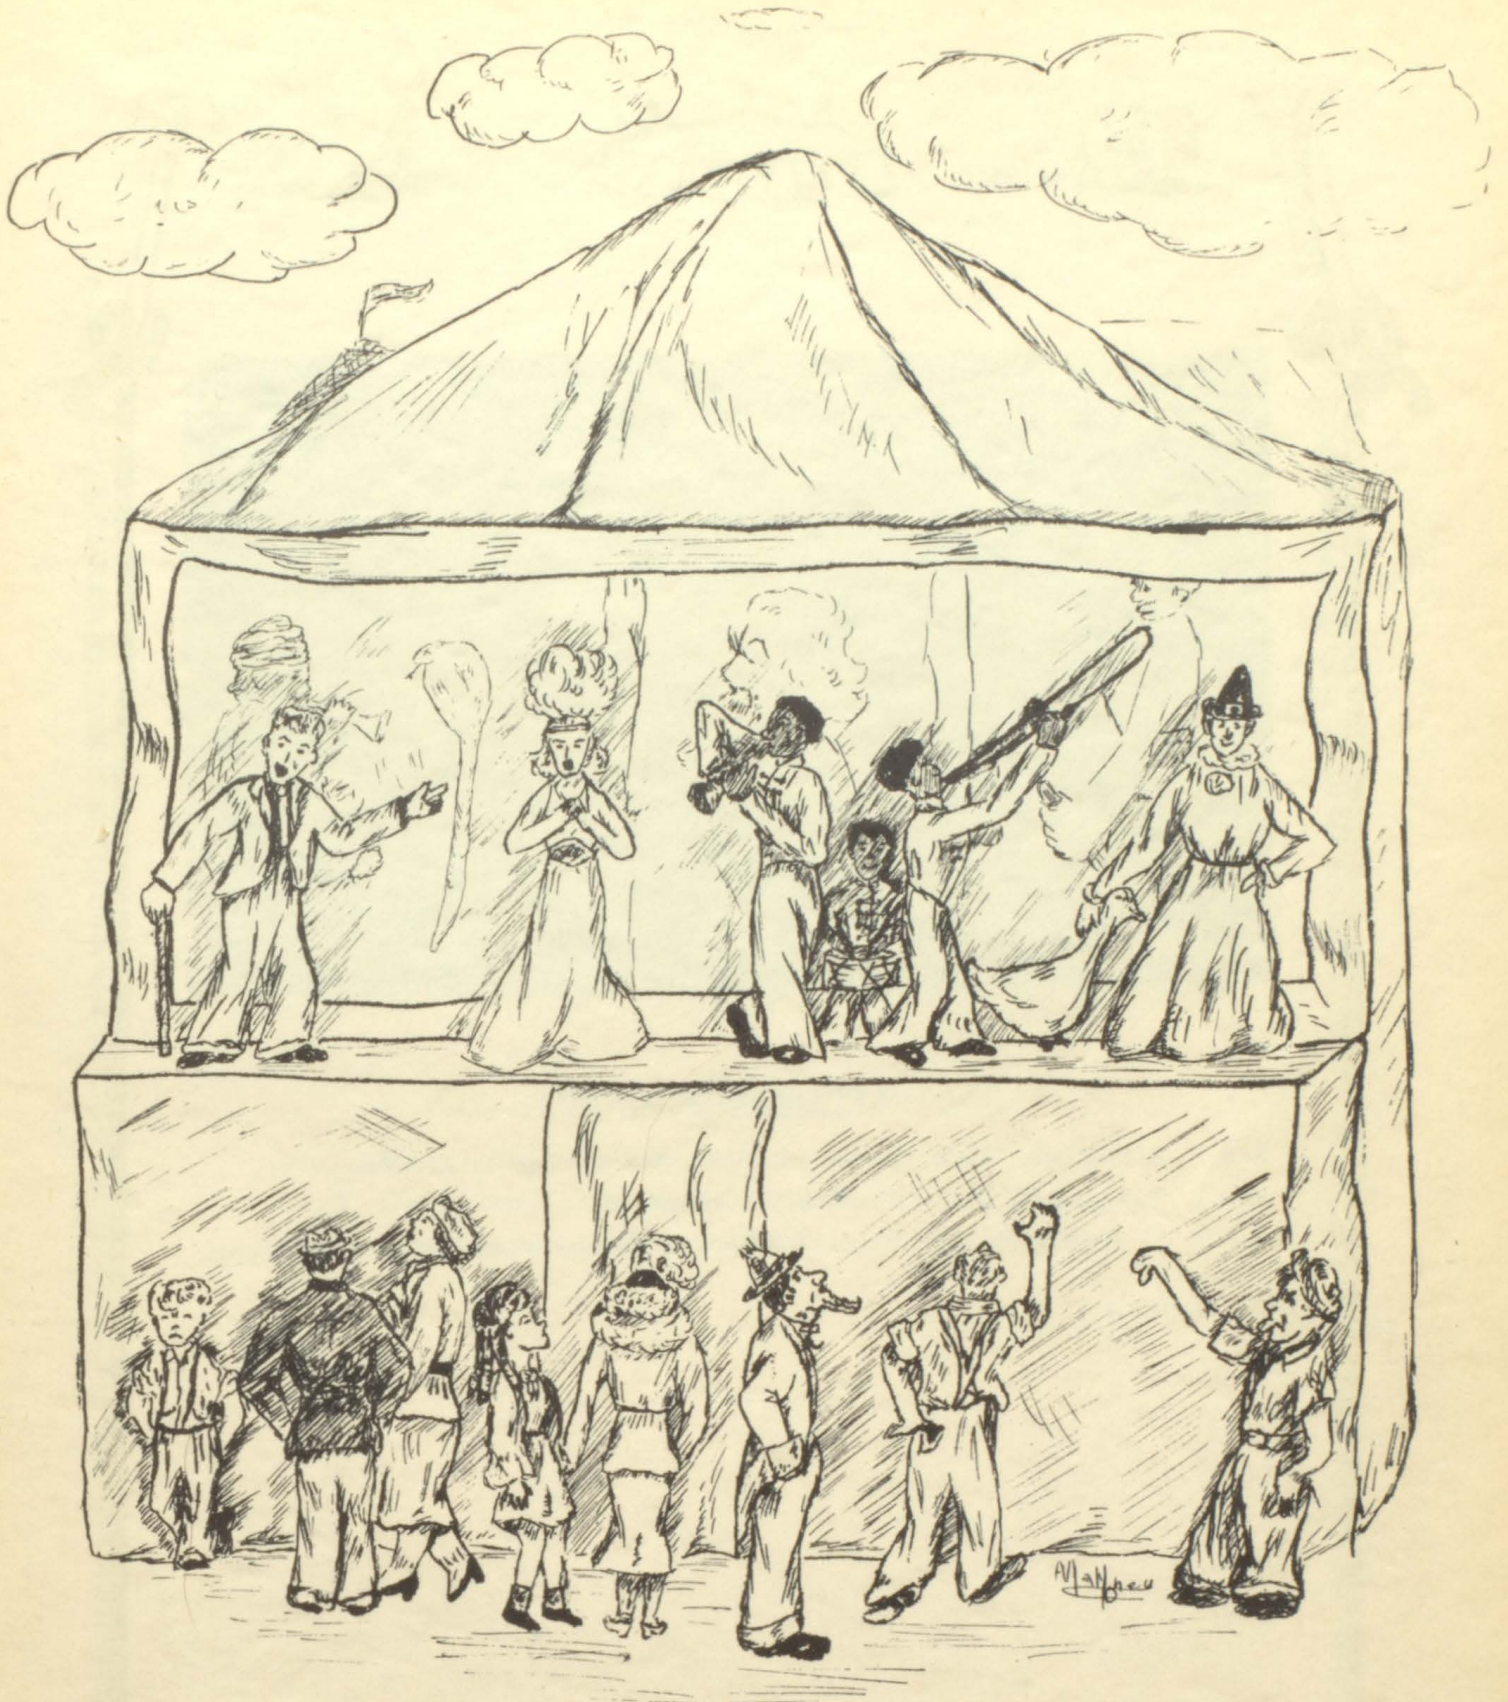

With the energy of the girls steadily increasing, volley ball seemed to be the next attraction. The 8B's proved their power by overcoming the 8A's, while the freshmen showed equal power with their victory over the sophomores. After the powerful seniors had conquered the juniors, the sophomores came back into the game with enough energy to overcome the seniors in one of the most exciting games of the year. In the breath-taking moments of the game, the sophomores proved their power by flashing Eileen Stone before the opponents, while the defeated team caused enough trouble with such players as Mildred Boyd and Margaret Hart. But in the finals the freshmen came out victorious over all the others.

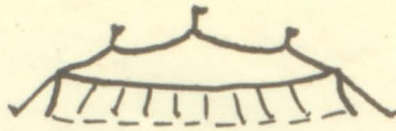

Two honorary teams were picked, the "Maroons" consisting of seniors, sophomores, and 8A's, while the "Whites" consisted of juniors, freshmen and 8B's. Those making the varsity for volley-ball were as follows: Helen Hunt, Helen Harkleroad, Margaret Kelly, Mary Elizabeth Hayes, Katherine Fogarty, Janice Kensinger, Christine Holloway, Eileen Stone, Marjorie Willard, and Mary Blevins.

With the Christmas holidays over, the girls seemed full of pep and ready for the most popular game of the year, basketball! The girls formed their groups and started the upward climb to victory. Managers and captains respectively of each team were as follows: seniors—Mildred Boyd, Helen Harkleroad; juniors—Helen Hunt, Elizabeth Henninger; sophomores—Eileen Stone, Carolyn Riddle; freshmen A—Carmen Lilly, Ada Lynn Hawkins; freshmen B—Frances Quillen, Dot Baker; 8A's—Mary Betty Huff, Rosina Rainero.

After days and weeks of exciting games between classes, the seniors won the basketball tournament of 1936. The girls making the varsity were the following: Margaret Moore, Helen Shuler, Margaret Hart, Helen Hunt, Helen Harkleroad, and Mildred Boyd.

A GOOD DRUG STORE

The Good Drug Store of today is more than a drug store. Although prescriptions are the dominating part of a drug store, nevertheless, you can find not a few, but many of the necessities of every home and individual need. The Drug Store is one of the leading factors in the progressiveness of any community.

BUNTING'S

"Bristol's Leading Drug Store Since 1869"

SULLINS COLLEGE

VIRGINIA PARK, BRISTOL, VIRGINIA

From its very beginning as a Junior College in 1917, Sullins has been accredited by all colleges and universities admitting on certificate.

Last report of Southern Association shows that the graduates of Sullins College High School passed 97.2 per cent of their work in the many colleges and universities which they entered without examination.

During the past four years the graduates from Sullins College have entered (without examination) the Junior Class of 28 leading universities and have passed 98 per cent of their work and in many instances with high honors.

The same high standards are maintained in the Department of Music, Art, Expression, and Dramatics, Home Economics, Secretarial Science, and Journalism.

Unexcelled opportunities offered to Day Students as well as to the Boarding Students who come from every section to share in the advantages of a school which is national in its spirit and reputation.

A Question!

Why is the cost at Virginia Intermont College less than that of other Schools and Colleges advertised in the National Magazines

The Answer!

1. Virginia Intermont College has no debt and no interest to pay on a mortgage. It has not had a cent of debt in twenty years.
2. Virginia Intermont College is not privately owned nor a stock company, and has no dividends to declare or taxes to pay.
3. Virginia Intermont College has endowment, the income from which is used for improvements and overhead expenses.
4. The school is constantly receiving gifts from people who are interested in the kind of training Virginia Intermont College girls receive.
5. Virginia Intermont College does not "cut" its rates under the guise of "scholarships," which are simple reductions to secure patronage.
6. Most of the supplies for the college tables come from the school's dairy and farm of over a thousand acres.
7. Virginia Intermont College fills to capacity every year without an expensive outlay for advertising and field representation.
8. Virginia Intermont College has had good business management for many years, and its finances have been kept in sound condition. There has never been a year when the auditor's report showed a deficit.

The catalog gives full information as to courses and total cost for board, room, literary tuition, and fees, ranging from $460 to $560. For particulars, write to

H. G. NOFFSINGER, President,

WHERE else can boys and girls in their teens find wearables in such variety as at KING'S. Specialized buying for individual departments makes for satisfaction in details more important now than ever before.

Now, more than ever, style, fit, and quality are requisites for correct wearables for both boys and girls of the teen ages. That's why boys and girls, as well as their parents, know KING'S as a style center. That's why so many boys and girls find at KING'S just what suits them best, just what distinguishes them as being well dressed for every occasion.
