OF AN EVENTFUL YEAR

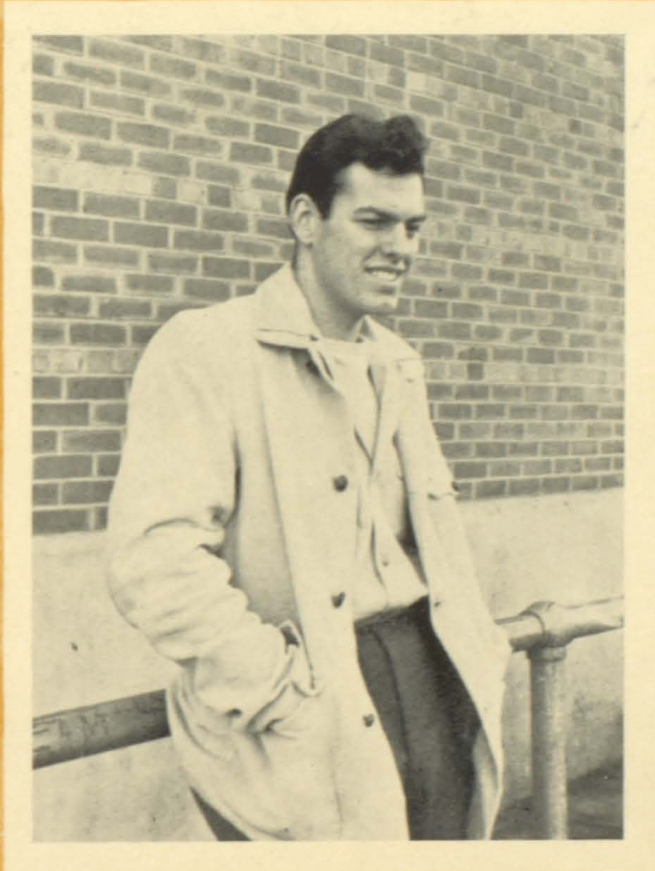

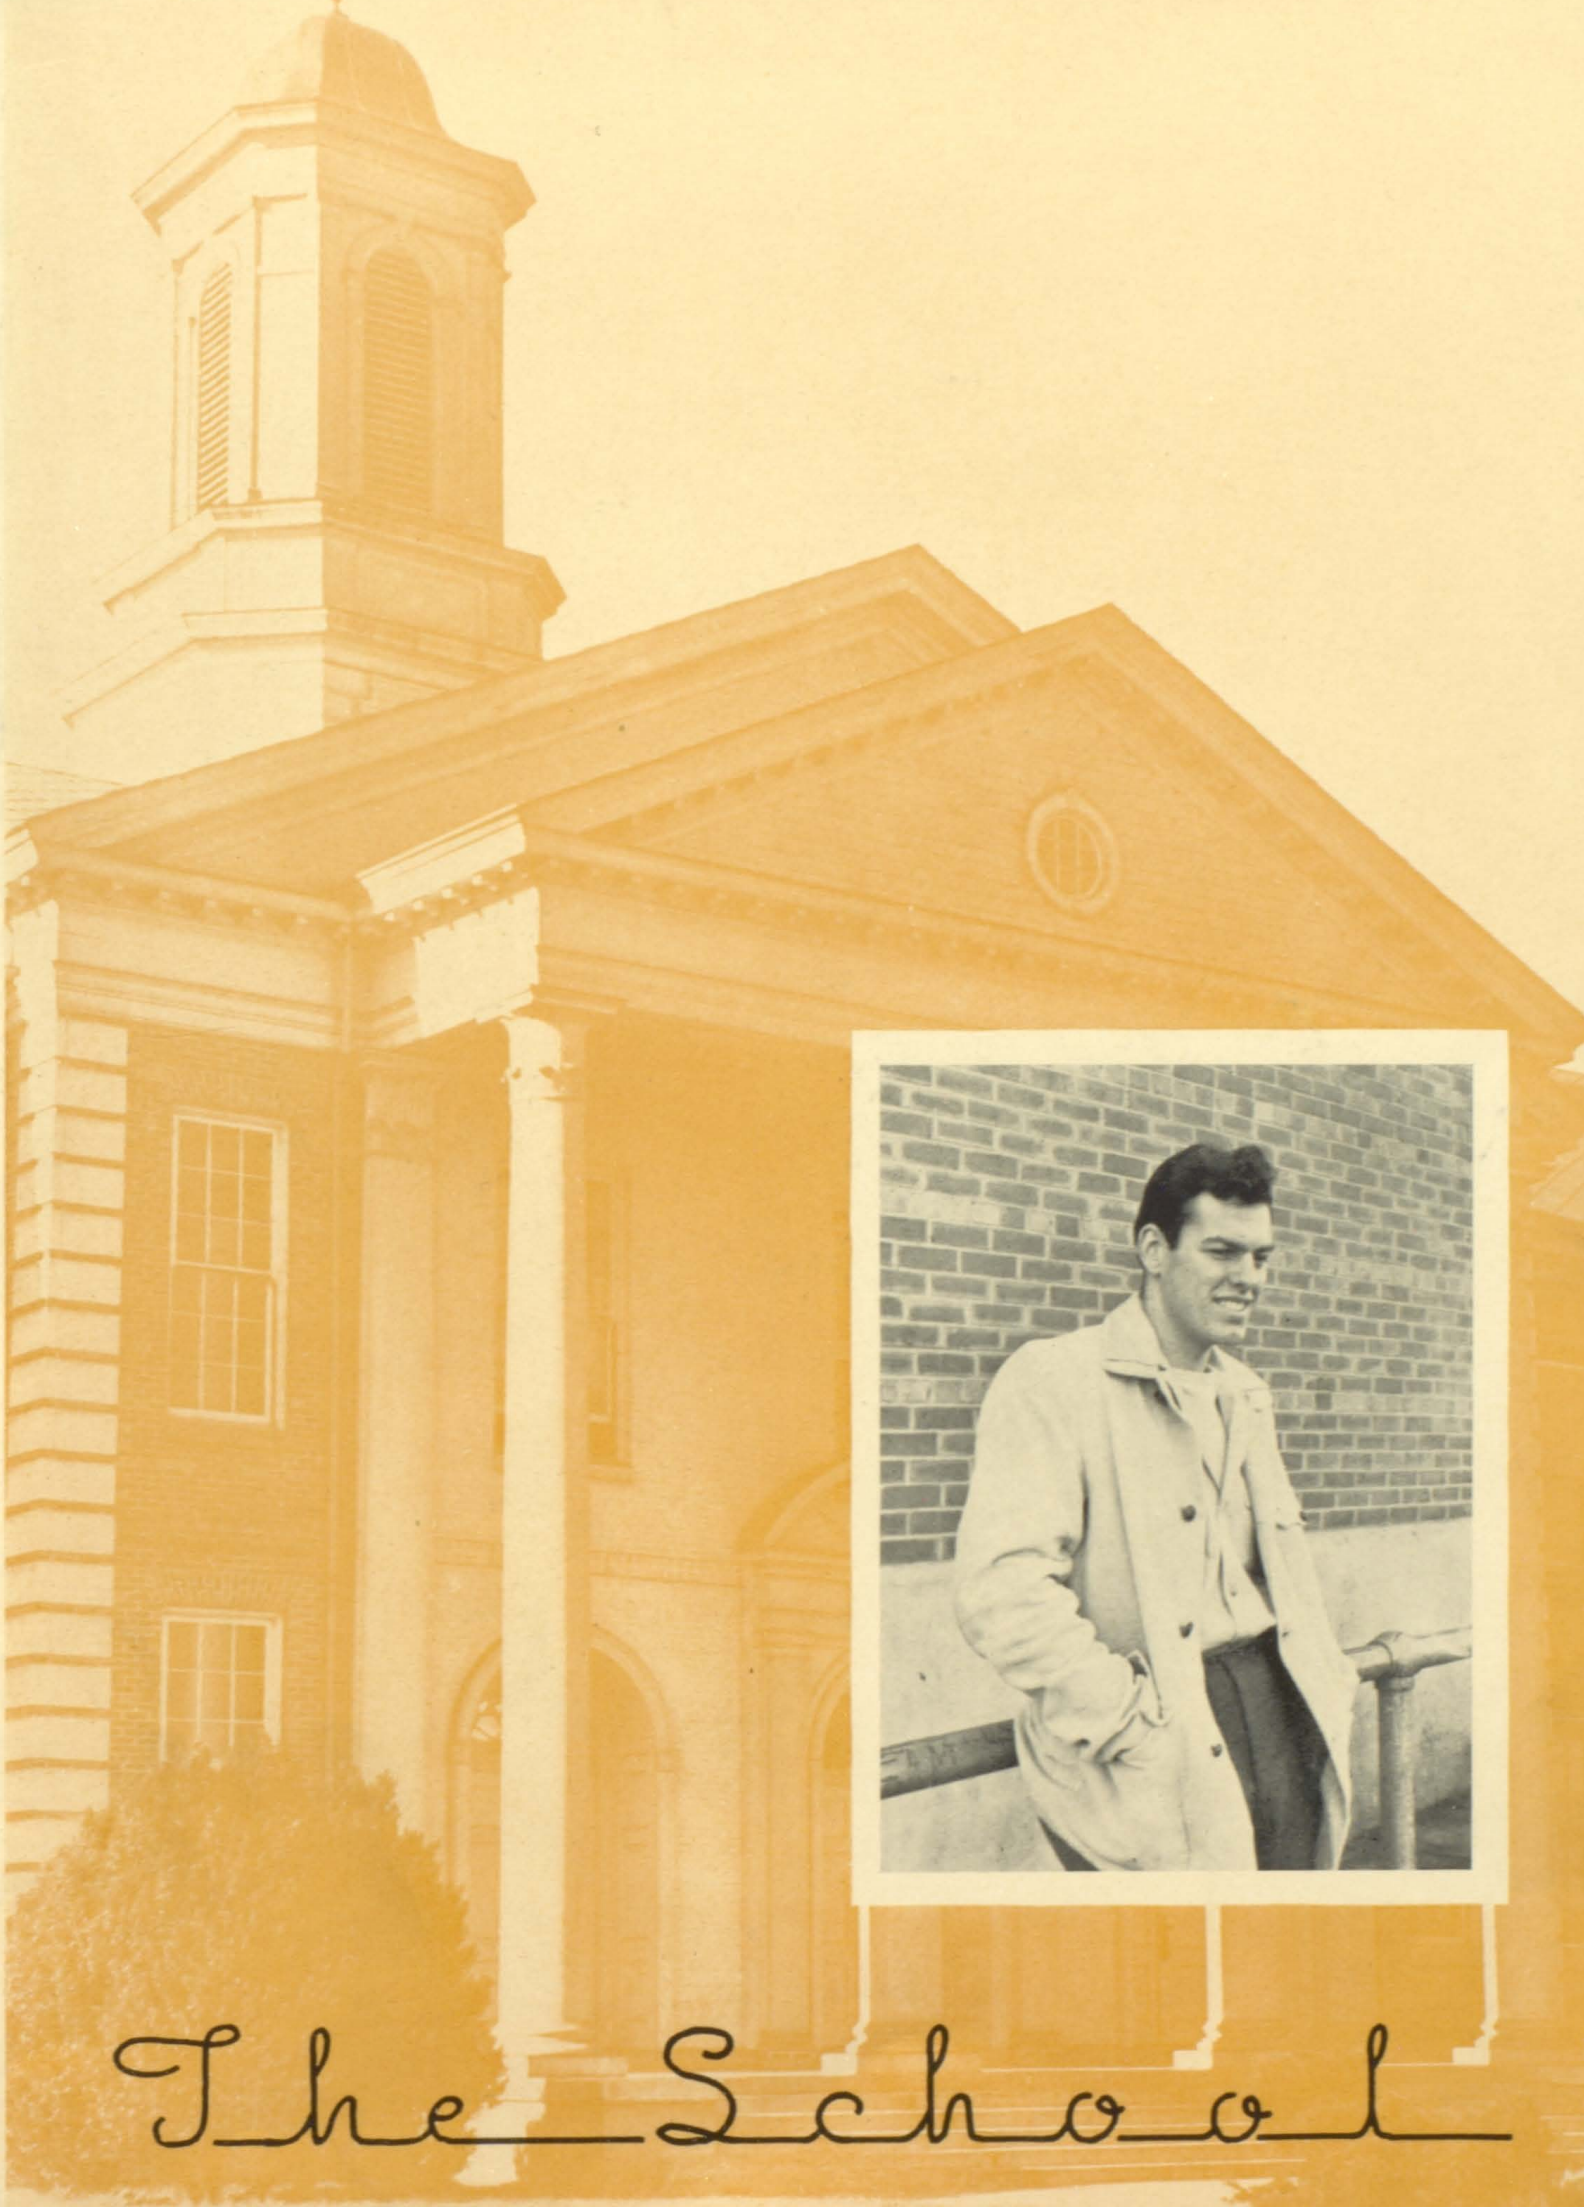

1943

TO MEMORIES—memories of school rooms, noisy and quiet, of corridors filled with shouts of laughter and clang of lockers, or hushed with the quiet loneliness of after-school twilight; memories of friendly teachers, patient and loyal; memories — dearest memories of all — of friendships—true friendships which will ever be with us—to these intangible things, both great and small, which have made our high school days our golden days and which draw us close to our school, even in parting, the Senior Class of 1943 dedicates its CADMEA.

Seniors

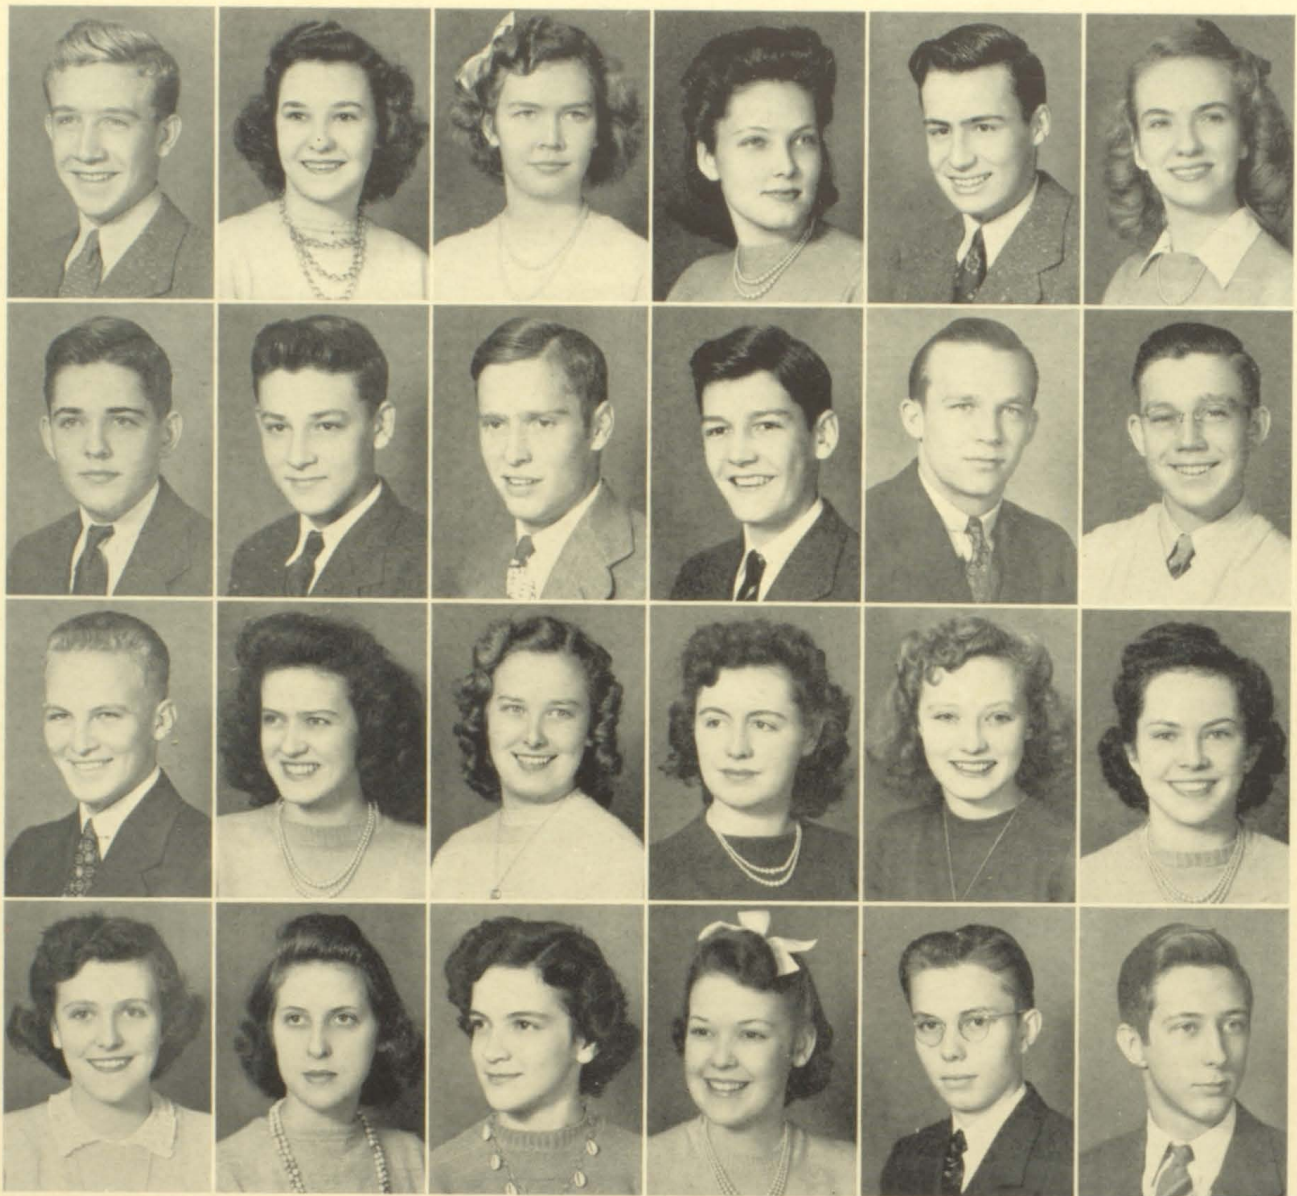

These are our "super" students, chosen to represent the seniors because of their capabilities. ROSEMARY JONES and JANE BURROW held executive offices both in the Student Council and senior class. Jane is also an efficient member of the Maroon and White staff and we will long remember Rosemary's musical talent. GEORGE KUHNERT and AUBREY MEADOWS are our band leaders. Aubrey is drum major and George is student band conductor.

Superlatives

DICK EASLEY held the high office of president of the senior class for the fall term. Outstanding as president of Girls' Hi-Y and associate editor of the Cadmea is EMMA HAMRICK. BILLIE CHILDRESS and W. K. LAMBERT were elected best all-round girl and boy. W. K. was also football captain and student body president.

Alma Mater

On the city's southern border

Reared against the sky,

Proudly stands our Alma Mater

As the years go by.

Forward ever be our watchword

Conquer and prevail;

Hail to thee! Our Alma Mater,

Tennessee, all hail!

The Organizations

CADMUS CLUB

● With the remembrances of subscriptions, advertisements, and pictures we will always think of our work with the Cadmea. The staff has earnestly endeavored to create in this book an everlasting portrayal of high school days so that we can recapture our happiness and hardships in a golden memory.

STAFF MEMBERS

Frances Proffitt, Rosemary Jones, Jimmy Kummer, Jimmy Cowan, Fae Lane, Evamae Furse, Dorothy Carmody, Aubrey Meadows, Betty Campbell, Jimmy Dix, Dorothy Bullock, Emma Hamrick, Aleene O'Dell, Billie Childress, Jean Ferguson, Mary Virginia Combs, and Mr. George G. Gillingham, sponsor.

BILLIE CHILDRESS, Editor
MR. GILLINGHAM, sponsor, and ALEENE O'DELL, business manager, balance the books.

MAROON & WHITE

● Front page news, gossip column, spotlight, sports spasms . . . all of these things made us excited and anxious over our school paper. The Maroon and White, published monthly, has won the Quill and Scroll International first place award for six years.

OUR GUIDING STARS

● The leaders of school or the "big bosses" are the members of the All-Students' Council. This is the student governing body, consisting of the presidents of all organizations, which represents the entire student body.

BIBLE STUDENTS

● The Bible classes have been very helpful this year by presenting our Wednesday morning chapel programs. These programs, which further the religious activities of our school, are a highlight of our week.

T FOR TENNESSEE

● Athletics, band and speech work—these are the activities in which students can earn a T. Becoming a member of the T Club is an honor that only those who have truly earned a letter can have.

FIZZICAL FEMMES

● The Girls' Athletic Club manages all girls' sports. Included in the physical education program this year were volleyball, basketball, softball, ping pong, bowling, badminton, and shuffleboard.

FILLES ET GARCONS

● French students eagerly look forward to the Friday for a French Club meeting. This is the time for French biographies, interesting customs, and not so much French "grammaire".

PUELLAE AT PUERI

● Cicero is made less painful by the "time-out" period taken for Latin Club. Programs feature Roman customs, songs and entertaining reports.

MUCHACHAS Y MUCHACHOS

● In the Spanish Club the students learn about the Senors and the Senoritas. They reported on the South American countries and read from Spanish novels.

THOSE WHO SERVE

● Red Cross drive, Tubercular drive, and Infantile Paralysis drive—this work is in charge of the Junior Red Cross. To make Tennessee High a helpful and serving school is the aim of the Council.

MR. CITIZEN, JR.

● The Jr. Civitan Club stands for good citizens and character builders. The members must have an 80% scholastic average. They receive valuable training in citizenship.

"GOOD DEEDERS"

● Our war workers are the Girl Scouts. They have done excellent work in the salvage program—collecting scrap metal, fat, and tin foil. The troop, sponsored by the American Legion, meets at the Legion Hut.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

● Good cooks and seamstresses are our Home Ec. students. Not only do they cook dinner and sew dresses, but they do their part in helping a number of charitable organizations. The Tenn. High Club is a member of the Sullivan County Council and Betty Campbell is vice-president of the Council.

● The above pictures show girls in cooking and sewing classes.

EXPERIMENT, EXPLOSIONS, and SCIENTIFIC ATTITUDES

● With H_2S reeking from the Chemistry lab, the chemists of tomorrow labor diligently. The Alchemist Club programs enlighten the students with current and past events in the chemical world.

CHARLES HELTON and BETTY HASHBARGER get supplies for making nitric acid.

EDITH KOONTZ, A-1 typist, is a member of the D. O. Club.

OUR WORKING WORLD

● The D. O. Club or more recently named the T. and I. Club (Trade and Industrial) consists of the students who divide their time between work and school. Work suiting their talents or ambitions are obtained for these students and in this way they receive credit for graduation.

SENIOR DIARY

SEPT. 7—Labor Day—an ambiguous name for all THS students—School began today. SEPT. 10—Tryouts for cheerleaders. How peculiar! Four boys tried out and four boys were elected. SEPT. 11—Our first pep meeting for our first game. We played Abingdon tonight. Fine start, boys! We won—13-0. SEPT. 14—I know a certain group of students who can hardly move today—namely the seven cheerleaders. SEPT. 18—We played Erwin, there, but lost 18-0. What a day for the band! First, it can't go to Erwin; then by noon it can go; and by 5th period it definitely can't go. SEPT. 28—Mr. Wright left for Great Lakes Training Station, and the band was at the station to see and play him off. SEPT. 29—Group pictures for the annual are being taken now, and I'm financially embarrassed! SEPT. 29—Have you heard about the French Club outing?—Some fun, eh what? OCT 7-8—Achievement tests—that annual occasion when we students show off our ignorance. Why is it that the teachers haven't looked at the tests??? OCT. 9—Oh boy!—Our team is red hot—We knocked the Johnson City Hilltoppers right off that ole hill—Score 25-0!! OCT. 12—Miss Smith said, when generating hydrogen as a classroom demonstration, "If this stopper should come out, we'd all be blown to bits. Now gather around closely and watch the experiment." OCT. 15—Bonfire and pep meeting at the school tonight. The band, cheerleaders, and a large number of students were there. It was a rousing success! OCT. 21—Today was Maggie's birthday, so during lunch period, a crowd got together and sang "Happy Birthday" to her. You all know Maggie—she works in the cafeteria. OCT. 21—Report cards today. Darn it all! Why didn't I study??? OCT. 22—Pep meeting this morning. We white-washed Mountain City 46-12. Oh, dear team, may you be a joy forever to our old Alma Mater!! OCT. 27—Daddy, what's a wolf? I don't know, daughter, but I hear that if you go over to Tennessee High you'll be attacked by them. Mercy! Such blood-curdling cries as one does hear between classes. OCT. 29—Oh happy day (and a half)!! It comes once a year when the teachers all go to the teachers' meeting at Knoxville. Lost to Kingsport 12-6. NOV. 2—Spanish Club outing today. Miss Hawkins, won't you believe them when they say they didn't mean to take the wrong trail? NOV. 3—Have you heard the latest? Miss Roberson has classes in vocal harmony. Ask Charlie Baker for particulars. NOV. 4—Why, oh why are so many boys limping around school? Oh! You say Coach has begun a new regime in gym classes?—Woe is me!!! NOV. 5—Both the Seniors and Juniors had class meetings today to choose their queens. Wilma Comerford and Ann McKee were their choices, respectively. NOV. 12—Pep meeting. Parade. And there was something else—Oh Yes!—We played Virginia High tonight—and I guess we cooked their goose—27-6. Not bad, boys. We'll love you always for that. We had a snake dance afterward, with the band leading it to town from the stadium. NOV. 19—Poor Mrs. McClelland! Every year about this time she gets all steamed up about the last minute preparations for the Junior play, and nearly goes crazy. NOV. 20—Junior play tonight. "Let Convention Go Hang" and come out to the Junior-Senior barn dance in the gym after the play!! DEC. 14—School just isn't the same with so many folks out working this week. Anyone with an average of 80 or better can be excused to work all week. DEC. 18—Christmas holidays—We're free till—JAN 4—Returned to school. I think some students forgot there was such a thing as school. JAN. 11—Confidentially "these shoes is killin' me." Due to an act of my Uncle (Sam), there is a restriction on pleasure driving of automobiles. Therefore, I walked last night and am barely able to walk today. JAN. 15—First basketball game with Virginia High this season. We won 27-25. JAN. 20-22—Exams—need we say more? JAN. 25—The new term began today; new Freshmen came over; some of them got ducked—Reminds us of the good ole days when the Seniors were Frosh. FEB. 2—Played Virginia High again. Won again, 29-16. FEB. 3—And today Bill Faucette came to school with the lipstick smeared. Bill!! When did you begin to use it? FEB. 5—Movies today. FEB. 8—Two new red-heads became permanent fixtures of our school today. Hm-m-m-m!! FEB. 10—Dear "Santa Claus" (Wyatt): Those are pretty sly winks you are giving Peggy Jean R., but not sly enough to go unnoticed by everyone else. FEB. 12—Homer Smith and those stink bombs. Pew!!! FEB. 15—And now Miss Smith seems to have taken up Homer's challenge and is running him a close race with Hydrogen-Sulfide. FEB. 22-25—School dismissed on account of rationing. FEB. 26—Everyone (??) came back to school except a few of our musicians who went to Maryville to enter a music festival. MAR. 1—Well, so long, diary. You have a date with the printers!!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the members of the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred Forty-three of Tennessee High, being of sound mind and good health, and realizing the nearness of our departure, and our importance as Seniors of this denomination, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

First: To Mr. Arrants, Mr. Eggers and the members of the faculty, we leave our deepest gratitude and kind feelings for their faithful guidance along the road of education that leads to graduation.

Second: To our beloved sponsors, Miss Baxter, Miss Owen, and Mr. Gillingham, we leave our sincere appreciation for their untiring efforts to make this year such a pleasant one.

Third: To the Freshmen and Sophomores, we will our many dreams and our fantasies and dignity which characterize every Senior class and the hope that they, too, will be inspired by their last year in this worthy institution.

Fourth: To the Juniors, we will them all the high aims and inspiration that may accumulate in their thoughts and our personal bequeaths:

I, Doris Mauk, bequeath my high ideals to any Junior who can uphold them . . . We, Billie Childress and Tom Driver, will our studiousness to Dorothy Bullock and Bobby Joe Coontz . . . We, Emma Hamrick and Jane Burrow, leave our ability of winning friends to Betty Ruth Reel and June Rock . . . I, Gloria Bachman, bequeath to Fae Lane my smooth line that wins the boys . . . We, Rosemary Jones and George Kuhnert, leave our musical talent to Sam Stevenson and Nancy Stickley . . . We, the Sub-Debs, will our club to any twelve girls who want to attract attention in such a manner . . . I, Wilma Comerford bequeath my angelic appearance to Ann McKee . . . We, W. K. Lambert and John Ford, will our football ability to Mack Bray and Hal Littleford, hoping they will win many games for Tennessee High in the future . . . I, Robert Lindsey, leave my way with women to H. R. Bibee and Allan Mumpower . . . We, Helen Gray and Carolyn Senter, bequeath our perfect friendship to Norma Bray and Lillian Broyles . . . I, "Dood" Riddle, leave my heart to Peggy Nickles . . . I, Josephine De Friece, will my attractive and numerous clothes to Eva Mae Furse . . . We, Dick Easley and Aubrey Meadows, bequeath our good looks to John Droke and Joe Grubbs . . . We, Betty Boyd and Iris Denton, leave some of our excess weight to Minnie Miller and Mary Fae McCroskey . . . I, Betty Campbell, will some of my pep and school spirit to Helen Mundie . . . I, Robertine Boaz, leave my ability to flirt to Jewel Wilcox . . . We, Jack Brumit and Charles Francisco, bequeath our ability to sing to the Junior boys, hoping the chorus will benefit by it . . . We, Gladys Coffey, Mary Lee Lynch, and Edith Koontz, will our athletic abilities to Betty Burrow, Marion Hogsett, and Jane Phelps . . . I, Marcella Horne, bequeath my collection of King College boys to Margaret Carter . . . We, Leone Fleenor and Buck Janes, leave some of our wit to Frances Profitt and Catherine Fleenor . . . I, Charlie Baker, knowing the importance of graduation but not realizing the effort that must be put forth, do hereby bequeath my desirous attitude of graduation to John Adams . . . We, Thelma Rather, Ailene Arnold, and Alice Warren, will our vast knowledge of commercial subjects to Mary Alice Fletcher, Helen Philipps and Irene Brewer . . . I, Bobby Ferguson, leave my drumming ability to Margaret O'Dell . . . We, Agnes Carter and Dorothy Kilgore, leave our sweet personalities to Elizabeth Pyle and Betty Francisco . . . We, Bill and Jack Faucette, will our likeness to any two Juniors who want to fool the teachers . . . We, Jane Millard and Jean Buckles, bequeath our kind and helpful attitude to Louise Patton and Ann Bachman . . . We, James Anderson and Jerry Rucker, will our stylish clothes to Jimmy Kummer and Jack Snapp . . . I, Herbert Roberts, leave some of my silence to Bobby Frazier and Billy Overman, hoping to make the school a bit quieter . . . I, Robert Alley, will my car to my brother, Clay Alley, if he can get gas . . . We, Marie Combs and Doris Calhoun, bequeath our beautiful complexion to Betty Hashbarger and Mary Virginia Combs . . . I, Charles Minor, will my excess height to Mac Fain . . . We, Martha Bane and Eula Jean McClellan, leave our quiet and peaceful manner to Evelyn Austin and Mary Jane Powers . . . I, Buck Phipps, bequeath my basketball ability to Herbert Seavey . . . I, Mary Ann Walker, leave my seat at the "Rat House" to Charles Moore . . . I, Julia Reed, leave my ability to call W. K., "Dubby" and get by with it, to Sam Faidley . . . I, Burlie Miller, bequeath my scientific attitude to Nathan Hall . . . I, Jerry Rucker, being a shark in all subjects, will to Leon Long the above title . . . I, Mildred Terry, bequeath my ability to "set the school on fire" to Margaret Fisher . . . I, Stanley Reynolds, leave my attraction for women to Allan Finkle . . . We, Ethel Oakley and Pearl Smith, will our ever-present and radiating smile to Lorraine Rutherford and Sarah Faucette . . . I, Wanda Cole, leave my large crop of hair to Frances Hicks . . . We, Betty Sharpe and Ann Van Dyke, bequeath our unusually quiet disposition to Rita Rexrode and Ellogene Vanhook.

We, the undersigned, do respectively submit this, our last will and testament on this, the 27th day of May, 1943.

SPRING SPORTS

RADY BLEVINS, high-jumping in Big Five track meet.

CHARLES MOORE, broad-jumping in Big Five track meet.

● Included in the spring sports at Tennessee High are baseball and track. Until the spring of '42 track had not been a major sport. Under Coach Mackey's direction, we were hosts to the Big Five track meet and held dual meet with Virginia.

The baseball team compiled an excellent record against Big Five competition.

Why Don't We Do This More Often?

EACH page of this Annual will bring a sharp twist to our hearts, a mist to our eyes with the intimation of the trivial things that comprised our life at Tennessee High. Four years of life—years which we shall wish to capture and stow away deep within the innermost recesses of our being to renew our faith and courage along the pathway of time.

Poignant memories arise as, for the last time, we open our lockers and pull forth the books that now seem like old friends. No, it wasn't the grades nor books that made us what we are; it couldn't have been; it wasn't even the football games recalled by those old programs—nor basketball games whose importance formed the very essence of life at Tennessee High. No, it was cheering for and loving someone else, it was striving in unison for common goals, it was being respected, helped, appreciated by another. Notes slipped across study hall, old exams over which we strove in deepest tribulation, favors of Class Night, bids for the Junior Class party, unconsciously as each of these transient joys and small troubles came to pass, we were enabled to grow broader, profounder, saner. Eager, deep friendships and those small sorrows, such as we knew, quietly molded us into the embodiment of our highest ideals. Those trivial plans, dreams, hopes, drew us nearer to each other, teaching us the absolute necessity for companionship — enlarging, beautifying a character.

Four years of life lived over in a few hours; a chapter completed; a milestone passed. Slowly we close the locker doors. A group of under classmen file past, laughing, gay, happy, and in our hearts is a tinge of envy as we wish that the hands of the clock might be turned back. But now this chapter of our youth is concluded forever, to be reopened only in memory.

Even these pages cannot recall the "honor of honors", for Tennessee High writes her highest degrees upon the souls of her sons and daughters. Through the open door can be seen the massive columns, symbols of her everlasting, immortal strength, and we know that although leaving, never were we closer to our Alma Mater. In the years to come those columns will be present giving us strength and faith in all we attempt. Thus we go forth to achieve our goals on the dim horizon of the future, drawing courage in the knowledge that the race is to the "swift and the strong", and from our lips come the words dear to us all:

"Forward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail."

Life at Tennessee High has been ours.

To those who have made it possible for us to have a CADMEA for 1943, the Staff wishes to express its sincerest appreciation . . .
