EIGHT OF THE

FORTY-EIGHT

It Was a Good
'Ole SUMMER

*W*ith V-E Day and V-J Day only memories, it was quite a cosmopolitan crowd that assembled at BRISTOL TENNESSEE HIGH SCHOOL in the fall of the year 1945. To prove our statement, we present:

ROY EDMONDS of West Virginia
ROSELYN CARSWELL of Virginia
DONALD KELLER of California
JANE GLAVIN of Kansas
RITA GRUBBS of Ohio
BICKLEY FOSTER of New York
BETTY ALMANY of Indiana
FRED SHARPE of Louisiana

Tennessee High has established and will maintain a policy of friendliness and hospitality to all newcomers.

WE CONGREGATE 500

On September the third, five hundred students gathered in the auditorium for the most unpopular event of the year, the opening of school. Mr. Barksdale made his customary address to the student body, and we knew then that the school year was really starting. To the Seniors, this was a well-known day, to the Juniors and Sophomores, a rather familiar one, and to the Freshman, a new and exciting "day of daze." We adjourned to our respective home-rooms, and the year '45-'46 was begun.

ONE SCHOOL---

500 Individuals and Interests

With grateful hearts that Victory was ours and that most of our number having fought to preserve the American Way of Life had returned and many had received their high school diplomas after completing work in Service Schools, we proudly assumed our responsibilities in our school community. Our talents, interests, and purposes varied in proportion to the number of persons in the administration, faculty, and student body; yet all tended toward one goal—a better Tennessee High. We, therefore, determined to learn the richer, fuller meaning of a World Brotherhood by living democratically in our work and recreation.

PORTRAYS THE SCHOOL YEAR

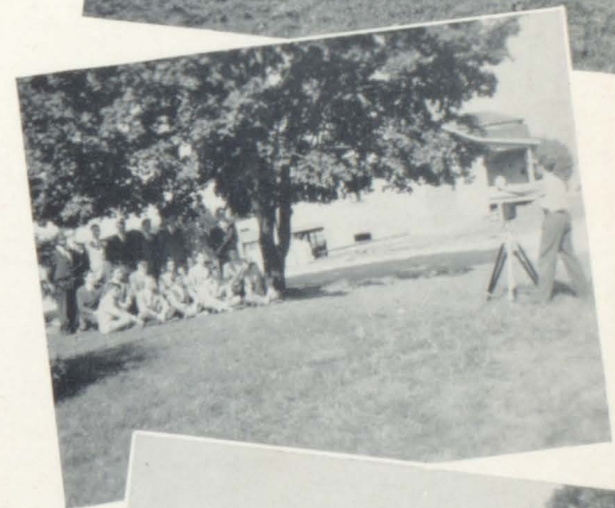

This year we give you a pictorial review of all phases of student life and activity at B. T. H. S. Each day is a busy one. After meeting six classes, students attend various club meetings. B. T. H. S. offers an extensive and well-rounded activity program. Athletics and all sports are popular with both boys and girls; and since a variety of sports are offered, every student can pick the one of his choice on which to center his attention.

Comes the time when "The sun goes down and the moon comes up." The girls shed their bobby-sox and sweaters for something feminine and glamorous that brings forth the "Hubba Hubbas" from the boys, who, with ties, coats, and sometimes a tux, are plenty of competition for anything Hollywood can offer.

DEDICATION

MR. T. W. PRESTON

To Mr. T. W. Preston, President of King Printing Company, Bristol, Tennessee.

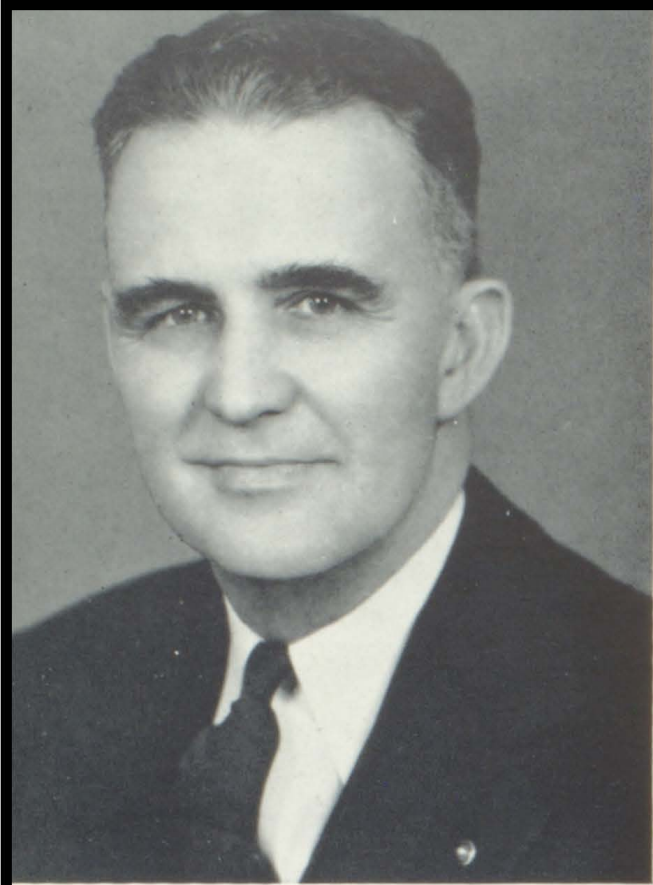

Mr. Preston, affectionately known to his employees and business associates as "Mr. T. W.", typifies a Southern gentleman and establishes a tradition and ideal for the youth of Bristol.

Distinguished by his charming personality and his unfailing courtesy to rich and poor, young and old, he is a scholar, a churchman, a philanthropist, an enthusiastic sportsman, a collector, and a writer. His "Historic Sketches of Holston Valley" is a valuable and authentic source of the history of Southwest Virginia and East Tennessee.

As the best of friends, as a gentleman and a scholar, and as a counselor of young yearbook staff members he has honored his community.

To Mr. T. W. Preston, whose patience, understanding, wisdom, co-operation, and friendly advice have made it possible for us to have superior annuals for many years, we the Cadmus Club lovingly dedicate this, the CADMEA for the year nineteen hundred and forty-six.

Supervisor of Elementary Schools, State
Department of Education.

Teacher of Elementary Education, State
Teachers College, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

City Superintendent, Bristol, Tenn.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

As we go to press we learn with regret that after ten years of service to the Bristol, Tennessee schools, Mr. Arrants is leaving us. Behind him is a record of devotion to and interest in us, the students. Under his high quality leadership the traditional excellency of the Bristol Tennessee School System has been maintained, and many fond dreams, including the present high school building on Edgemont Avenue, and numerous long-needed improvements in the elementary schools, have been realized. We shall long remember Mr. Arrants with affection and respect, and we wish him continued success.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. BARKSDALE

A.B., M.A.

Principal

Teacher and Principal at Charlotte High School, Charlotte, Tenn.

Principal at Central High School, Ashland City, Tenn.

Principal at E. W. Grove High School, Paris, Tenn.

Principal at Tennessee High School, Bristol, Tenn.

OUR PRINCIPAL

In this, his third year as our principal, Mr. Barksdale has further endeared himself to the Tennessee High students. His sound advice, understanding, and interest in each student as an individual will long be remembered by all who know him. With such able leadership, Tennessee High should be an even greater and sounder institution of learning in the years to come.

SENIOR MEDITATIONS

Like the will-of-the-wisp the years are gone
That have made our lives complete.
These happy years we've spent in school—
Oh, that we could repeat!

To the duties and the joys of life,
We pledge ourselves anew;
The wisdom of these four full years
Will not vanish like the dew!

The things that seemed so hard to bear
Now seem a lighter load,
For behind us are our mem'ries dear
To push us along the road.

So farewell to thee, dear school of ours,
We take our leave of thee;
But something of you will always stay
Within our hearts a surety!

Thinking their fellow students needed instruction in fields other than those offered by the school, the Juniors presented "A Little Honey" on November 30, 1945.

By using the experimental method, the play gave positive proof on such subjects as the best technique in getting a man, growing old gracefully, and "making time" with the able assistance of a T-Model Ford.

The Sophomore Class of 1945-1946 is the largest single class in the history of Tennessee High. It has numbered one hundred-fifty or more throughout the year. But this class is noted for something more interesting than its size. It is one of the brainiest classes Bristol Tennessee High has known. Again and again certain Sophomores have headed the list of honor students, and always the Sophomore honor roll is outstanding.

When it comes to popularity the Sophomores are unsurpassed. A Sophomore girl, Sue Overstreet, was selected by popular vote to be "Miss Victory" of Tennessee High, and the popular Bill Stevens, one time president of the class, was chosen "Mr. Peace."

For the Fall and Spring semesters the Sophomores selected the following officers:

FALL		SPRING
BILL STEVENS	President	HUGH KILGORE
CHARLES BLEVINS.....	Vice-President	BENITA BIRDWELL
ANN RANKIN.....	Secretary	PEGGY YOUNG
BETTY QUILLEN	Treasurer	JACQUELINE COULSON
JOE BYRD	Sergeant-at-Arms	BILL STEVENS

The class that is supposed to be seen and not heard (and not seen too much) has, nevertheless, accomplished much since the beginning of the fall term.

Soon after the election of the Freshmen officers, the class had a Hallowe'en party, which turned out to be a great success. There was a large crowd present and all had a lot of fun. The class also put on a special program in honor of St. Patrick's Day. The Freshmen thought (whether the rest of the school did or not) that this program was very entertaining. The Freshmen have placed several bright boys and girls on the honor roll this year.

The officers of the Freshman Class for the 1945-1946 term are:

MANUEL GARRISON.....	President
JIMMY GLOVER.....	Vice-President
BETTY JEAN ARROWOOD.....	Secretary
JOAN SHARPE.....	Treasurer
JIMMY BOURNE.....	Sgt.-at-Arms

The Frosh may be looked down upon snootily by the Juniors and Seniors, but just watch the class of '49.

THE LAST WILL

We, the T. H. S. Senior Class of '46, being of sound mind, incidentally no fault of ours, and good health, and realizing our high school days are fleeting fast, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

First: To Mr. Arrants, Mr. Barksdale, and the entire faculty we leave our sincerest appreciation for the patience and understanding they have shown in our behalf in every difficulty.

Second: To our beloved and efficient sponsors, we leave our deepest gratitude for the interest and never-ending co-operation they have given so freely and willingly. They have made our stay a happy one.

Third: To the Freshmen and Sophomores, we bequeath the memory of four glorious years and urge them to hold high our standards and ideals.

Fourth: To the Juniors, along with many responsibilities and privileges, we make the following personal bequeaths:

I, BOB NEAL, do hereby bequeath my heart to BETTY LOU JONES... We, JOE RICHARDS and DON FRANKLIN, leave a goodly portion of our effervescent wit (?) to DAN BOUSCH and CYNTHIA MACMILLAN, trusting that it may add a little life to them and the school next year... We, JEWEL HART and DICK NEWSOME, leave our excess height to SIDNEY FINKLE, HAROLD CARTY, and ED DECK, reminding them that it can come in handy in a crowd... I, ARLIE GRIMES, bequeath my angelic expression to the angel of the Junior Class, CHARLIE HENRITZE... I, DORIS DAVIDSON, leave my bubbling personality to BERTHA JONES, hoping that she may enjoy it as much as I have... We, RUTH RUTHERFORD and MARY TAYLOR MINOR, leave our many and attractive clothes to RUTH and BETTY MOTTERN... I, BILL PIPPIN, reluctantly taking leave of these fair halls, having entered them as a Junior for a three-year stay, bequeath my athletic versatility to PEDEN TEMPLETON... I, MARGARET PYLE, leave my individuality and unique personality to NANCY SOLOMON... We, BETSY BOWERS, MARY AMELIA COPENHAVER, MARY HAMRICK, PATTY ANN FRIZZELL, and PEGGY McCLELLAN, leave our lasting friendship to JUNE CRABTREE and ELIZABETH BOYD... We, JANE CARSON and BILL DOGGETT, bequeath part of our musical talent to JIM McCORD, ELMER DOAK, and RUTH HARKRADER so they may soothe "weary" hearts and troubled spirits during chapel and assemblies... We, PEGGY WOOLWINE and GRACIE FAUCETTE, the Senior thrushes, leave our vocal inclinations to DORIS CLARDY and JACK WOODS... I, BILL (Hubba-Hubba) POOLE, leave my looks, personality, dimples, immense popularity, and captaincy of the Viking eleven to BILL (Dimples) GLOVER in hopes that he will be able to get and hang on to his "one and only" as well as I have... We, the CORDER and JANES twins, do bequeath our mistaken identities to any less fortunate individuals who always wish they were other persons... We, VANCE RUCKER, KENNETH HOBBS, and BENNY POWERS, do gladly leave to any interested Juniors our own manuscript, "Our Way With the College Girls"... I, FRANK (Hon) WINSTON, do bequeath my big blue eyes and "maggotism" to LOUIS PHETTEPLACE, trusting that it will enable him "to win friends and influence people" as it has me... We, JEAN TRAINHAM and MARY LOU WALDRON, leave our unusual spelling ability to DAPHNE (Sec. to Ed. Hon.) ELLIS... I, WANDA DAVENPORT, bequeath to REBA RATHER, BETTY PERCELL, MARIE BURNETTE, BETTY J. HICKS, EDNA GOODWIN, and JUNE HARKLEROAD, a portion of my quietness the teachers love so well... I, MARIE JONES, leave my sweet smile to PATSY SMALLING and ESTELLE McREYNOLDS... I, HELEN MORTON, leave to VIRGINIA CLARK, ANN JUDKINS, BERNICE SMITH, PAUL NELSON, and NED SHAW part of my quiet and unassuming manner... I, FRED SHARPE, leave my memories of the brief but pleasant days spent in Bristol to ETTA JANE FUGATE... I, JAKE MORRELL, being the smo-o-o-o-o-th member of the class of '46, leave my way with the women to "PLUG" McCLELLAN... I, BETTY BARKER, leave my baton to next year's majorette... We, INEZ CHRISTIAN, NANCY MAUK, and KATHLEEN SCOTT, leave a part of our quiet and retiring dispositions to THELMA CHRISTIAN, HELEN BLAIR, RITA GRUBBS, LOUISE LEGG and HERMAN FOSTER... We, WANDA HUNT and MARY SUE TOLLIVER, leave our unbelievable averages to MILDRED RESPESS, SHIRLEY KILGORE, and FRANCES INGRAM... We, DARLENE GENT, LUCILLE ARNOLD, and JIMMY FELTY, leave our seats in D. O. class to YVONNE WILLIAMS and MARGARET STEWART... I, PAT BIBEE, leave my ability to attract a "Gene" and hold him to WILLETTE BAKER... We, JANE GLAVIN and WALTER MILLER, bequeath our ever-present dignity to JACK BOOHER, CAROLYN SELFE, and VIRGINIA CARSON... I, MARGARET (Muscles) HANEY, do bequeath my physical prowess to "Wo Wo" PATRICK... I, GEORGE STEPHENSON, leave my slow gait and unhurried manner to JOE (Sleepy) COUNTS, TED HODGE, and ROY EDMONDS, with this warning—"We're living in a speedy age!"... I, ZEKE NICAR, will that sly little wink to RUTH ANN BROOKS, assuring her that it never fails to slay 'em... I, PEGGY JEAN RUSSELL, leave my ability to string 'em up to JEANELL WILLIS... We, JIM THOMAS and SHIRLEY WHITEHEAD, leave our melodious and soothing voices to MARY EVELYN REPASS and FAN PIPER... I, ELIZABETH ANN RICHARDS, leave my crown and royal robes to RACHEL EASLEY... We, BOB MILLARD, BILL BOAZ, JACK MORTON and HARRY RUDDER, leave those good looks that appeal to the fairer sex to HAL HAYNES, DON DONALDSON, and BILL STONE... We, BILL HASSINGER and BICKLEY FOSTER, leave our scientific attitudes to BUDDY JOE HOLCOMB and HERBERT RUTHERFORD... I, LYNN GALLOWAY, bequeath to GENE ALLEN GROSECLOSE my ability to hold that line... I, EDNA MINNICK, leave my sophisticated ways to NANCY SHOUN... I, FRANCES BOWERS, bequeath to HILDA HORNE my blonde hair and sweet disposition... I, AUDRA FINE, leave my shorthand grades to RUTH HOUSTON, even if she is doing O.K. on her own... I, BUNKER BURROW, leave my numerous friends and amiable nature to O'DELL SMITH... We, JOE PIPER and CARL GALLIHER, leave our managerial positions with a sigh of relief to any peppy Junior boys who don't cringe at the thought of work... I, BETTY HARDIN, leave my love for shorn locks to any Junior girl who has enough nerve to cut off so much hair... I, HOWELL ARTHUR, bequeath to B. L. GRIFFIN my quiet disposition and co-operative attitude with the assurance that it is the road of least resistance... I, JIMMY (Slugger) CROSS, leave my unusual height to HELEN CLARK... We, BARBARA SANDOS, MARY LOUISE MACMILLAN, and LAUREL BOWMAN, leave our chairs in Band to JANE VAUGHT, ELOISE WOOTEN, and ALICE BIRDWELL... We, CORNELIA BUCHANAN and LOIS ANN CROSS, leave some of the brightness of our hair to ERNEST SPENCE and WAYNE BURNETTE... We, MARY COMBS, AMARYLLIS MORRIS, and JEAN ALLEN MUSSELWHITE, do bequeath our sweet smiles and sunny dispositions to CHRISTINE KESTNER, JANET BANKS, and MARTHA LUTTRELL... We, ELLIS HARR, KENT WHITLOCK, CARLETON VAN DERVORT, and HORACE BRAMM, leave our Emily Post manners to CLARISSA SMITH and JIMMY GOEBEL... We, KATHRYN WATSON and MARGUERITE McNEW, bequeath our constant companionship to BETTY BERRY and FRANCES MILLER... We, PEARL LITTLETON, MARGARET LIVERMAN, and TEENY MOTTERN, leave our business-like attitudes to HULAH MAE PHIPPS, PAULINE NIDIFFER, and BAILEY FRAZIER... I, MARTHA BOWERY, leave a portion of my school spirit to WILMA SUE CARROLL... We, VIRGINIA JONES, EDITH McCROSKEY, PEGGY PRESLEY, and NANCY JANE PIERSON, leave our serious attitudes to IDA STITT, MARY LANGFORD, PAUL NIDIFFER, FRED EMMERT, and FRANCES DUNHAM... We, JOE ASHLEY, willingly leave a portion of our manley physique—that's all, Brother, we just leave it.

AND TESTAMENT

We, the undersigned, do respectfully submit this, our last will and testament, on this, the 23rd day of May, 1946.

The Cadmus Club is a long-established and time-honored organization. Founded jointly with the Maroon and White in 1915 and christened the Cadmus Club in 1921, it became a separate club in 1927 to publish yearbooks only. It has always been a coveted honor to be elected a member of this club and a signal honor to be chosen on the editorial and business staff. Requirements for membership are scholastic eligibility, dependability, literary interests, and willingness to sacrifice some leisure for the good of the club.

The Publishers Pose

Long will we remember those days of trudging after ads, taking subscriptions, lining up pictures, counting money, and meeting deadlines. Believe it or not, these and a million other tasks were really fun, as we realize now that they are done and remain only a memory. For all the time, effort, and energy devoted, the members find ample reward in the finished product.

The Staff At Work

"When is your assignment going to be turned in? One more absence from a meeting and you're off the staff." Despite these dire threats from the editor, assignments do manage to come in some way and once a month the student body is presented with a bright, newsy picture of school life as seen thru the eyes of student journalists.

One of the greatest joys of being in the Tri-Hi-Y is the fellowship we share with each other and with God. Our objective is a high standard of Christian character which we shall carry with us through life. The Tri-Hi-Y has encouraged greatly the daily reading of our Bibles and the helping of those less fortunate than ourselves. Tri-Hi-Y will be one of the fondest memories of our high school days.

Our service objective for the year 1945-46 has been to aid and befriend the children of the Janie Hammitt Home. Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter remembrances were sent them, and the Tri-Hi-Y girls have visited and entertained these children.

The Alpha Chapter, organized in 1922 as the Girls' Hi-Y Club, was until 1942 the only chapter of this club in Tennessee High; but the membership became so large that it was necessary to form two more chapters. All Tri-Hi-Y chapters have the same purpose, slogan, prayer, and pin and are open to upper-classmen who subscribe to the purpose.

THE TRI-HI-Y PIN

The pin is a small triangle with "Tri-Hi-Y" in the corners and a torch inscribed in a circle in the center. The triangle represents the entire personality—body, mind, and spirit.; the circle indicates the completeness of the Christian life; the torch, the mission expressed in the club purpose—"to create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character."

The individual chapters' social meetings in members' homes, Christmas parties, and the combining of the three chapters for the Spring Mother-Daughter Tea will always be bright and happy memories. At Christmas and Easter, the Tri-Hi-Y chapters combine to present the traditional candle-lighting services, sacred and beloved traditions of Tennessee High.

The Girls' Athletic Association is composed of approximately forty Tennessee High girls. This association forms the governing body for girls' sports. The membership is made up of a good representation from each of the four classes. Managers of the seven tournaments are elected by this group and have complete charge of the tournaments that are conducted throughout the school. Such an organization has done much to develop leadership and to aid in the promotion of better school spirit and citizenship.

THE GIRL RESERVE QUEST

Everywhere, always, in sunshine and shadow, in joy, in disappointment, in success, in defeat, we, the Girl Reserves, follow the Gleam. If once we fall, we rise to face the light; if once we fail, we fight again to win; we cannot be lonely, we stand together; from North to farthest South, from East to distant West, ours is the surest Quest—we know the One we follow.

PLATFORM

The four planks in the Hi-Y program are:

1. Clean Speech
2. Clean Living
3. Clean Sportsmanship
4. Clean Scholarship

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Hi-Y is:
 "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian Character."

The activities of the Hi-Y this year have been numerous and varied. We have striven to cooperate with activities of other clubs and have sponsored several drives. The Hi-Y sold pencils with the Big Five basketball schedule on them and Viking stickers in an effort to boost the school spirit of the student body. We presented an assembly program, unique in its content, which rewarded our efforts by thoroughly entertaining the audience.

We kept revolving in the social circle by having several outings that will long be remembered.

The purpose of the Junior Civitan Club is to cultivate social relations and fraternal fellowship, to co-operate in all kinds of activities, to promote clean sportsmanship and clean living, to make service a watchword, and finally to foster the ideals of the Senior Club, even as Juniors, to be "Builders of Good Citizenship".

As are all Civic Clubs, the Junior Civitan Club is open to boys of the Junior and Senior classes who merit its membership. It is an honor and an award to all boys who, through their own efforts, are attaining the standards of being Good Citizens.

The Spanish Club has as its purpose the study of the language and Spanish people, made through the reading of current Spanish newspapers, periodicals and Spanish literature. Our correspondence with the Spanish-speaking students of Central and South America increases our interest. Outings with typical Mexican food and a banquet at Mardi Gras with the program by our own Spanish members added much to the enjoyment of our work this year.

CITY TOURNAMENT

For the second time in as many years the basketeers of T. H. S. emerged victorious over the Virginia High Five to capture the coveted city crown. The first meeting of the two arch rivals was staged in Jefferson Gym when the Vikings eked out a 34-31 win in an overtime period.

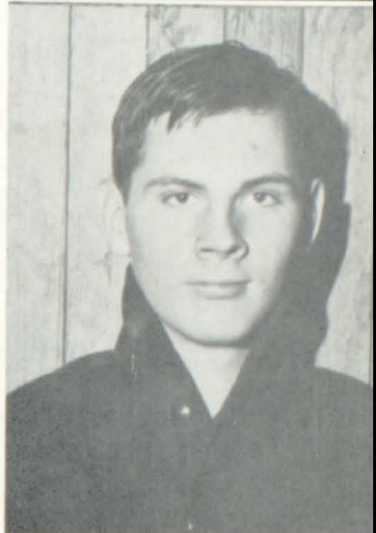

Game number two on the Vikings' home court was a different story; the home cagers, rich in reserve power, completely out-shown the city foes to the tune of 48-26, ringing down the curtain on the regular 1945-46 basketball season.

The final game of the season found six Seniors donning the colors of the Maroon and White basketball team for the last time. Bill Pippin, Bob Millard, Benny Powers, and Frank Winston wound up three years of varsity play, while Dick Newsome ended two years of basketball activity, and Lynn Galloway and Bob Neal wrote finis to their first year of hardwood competition. Coach Rupert Smith will have an experienced group reporting for the 1946-47 cage team. Charlie Nickels, Peden Templeton, Joe Byrd, Hal Haynes, Manuel Garrison, and Wayne Burnette will form the nucleus of one of the potentially strong teams in East Tennessee.

ATHLETIC RESUME

FOOTBALL

- Sept. 7—Entering the game as an underdog, the Tennessee High Vikings staged an uphill battle to send a strong Rule High eleven back to Knoxville on the short end of a 6-0 count as Bristol's grid season opened.
- Sept. 14—After a first-half kicking duel, the maroon and white clad warriors of Coaches Tyree and Smith got down to business and scored on the first play of the fourth period to make the final score read 7-0.
- Sept. 21—Leaving their home stand for the first time, the Vikings met the Erwin Blue Devils in their inaugural Big Five clash. Failing to dent the stubborn Erwin forward wall for more than one tally, Tennessee took to the air, racking up three touchdowns by this route to win 27-6.
- Oct. 5—Neither rain nor the invading Big Stone Gap Buccaneers could stop the Viking eleven who romped to a lop-sided 48-0 win over the Virginia team in Municipal Stadium.
- Oct. 12—Playing their best ball of the year, the home team scored an impressive 39-6 triumph over the Hilltoppers from Johnson City in Municipal Stadium with the entire Viking squad shining from stem to stern.
- Oct. 19—Winner of five straight games, the Tennessee Vikings entertained the Cyclones of Elizabethton with all East Tennessee wondering about the outcome. Soon after the whistle had blown, however, the bruising, downfield blocking of the Cyclone forward wall left little doubt as to the final result. Final score—Betsy 27, Tennessee 6.
- Oct. 24—Bearing the bruises of the preceding week's battle with Elizabethton, a crippled Tennessee squad journeyed to Johnson City for a see-saw game which resulted in a 6-6 deadlock.
- Nov. 2—With all the color of fast Bristol-Kingsport gridiron frays, the 1945 state football champions set the Vikings down 33-0 in J. Fred Johnson Stadium. The Tennessee line played stand-out ball, and it was not until the Indians took to the airways that they were able to run up their victory margin.
- Nov. 10—Bands, cheer-leaders, a joint pep-meeting, parades!!! This was it—the annual gridiron classic of the year between Tennessee and Virginia High Schools for the city football crown. The Vikings showed no mercy toward the toothless Bearcats, as Bob Neal and Lynn Galloway, stand-out Vikings for the year, led the Maroon and White aggregation to a convincing 32-0 win over their out-classed, out-manned, and out-played city rivals to end the 1945 grid season. Ah, but victory is so sweet!!!

BASKETBALL

Playing one of the stiffest schedules in East Tennessee, the Tennessee Vikings enjoyed another successful cage season under the tutelage of Coach Rupert Smith. The Vikings ended the season with a 13 win, 9 loss record, and with the city championship and third place in the tough Big Five race thrown in for good measure.

SPRING SPORTS

As the end of school draws nigh, the athletes of T. H. S. forsake the gym for the great outdoors where they take part in spring football, track, and baseball. Those out for track had a busy season on the cinders. In addition to participating in the annual Big Five and East Tennessee meets, a triangular meet was held at Knoxville among Tennessee, Kingsport, and Knox High. Future diamond greats had a full schedule ahead of them, also, playing a tough eight-game schedule against Big Five opponents and a city championship series of three games with Virginia High.

GIRLS' HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Approximately two hundred and seventy girls participate regularly in health and physical education classes three times a week at Tennessee High.

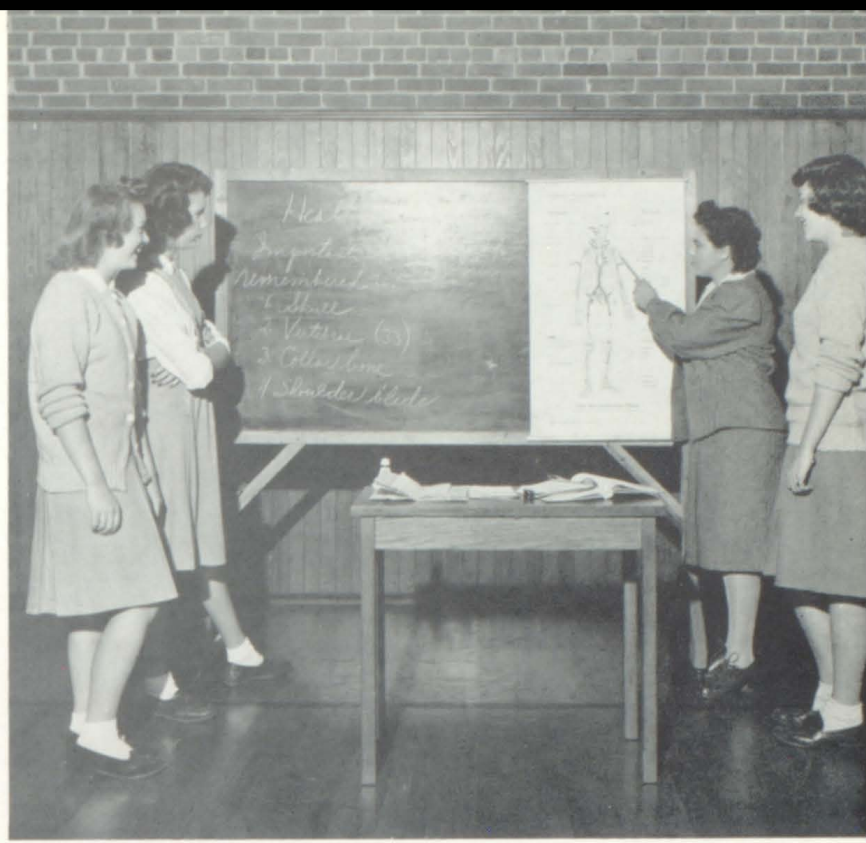

An active and strenuous program of activities as well as a modified program is carried on to meet the needs of all the girls.

An intra-mural program is conducted annually in the major and minor sports as pictured.

Each girl receives training in the above sports during class time and then is given a chance to compete with others.

Other activities during the year include soccer, horseshoes, duck pins, calisthenic drills, rhythmic games, and croquet.

Enthusiastic discussions are frequently held in weekly health classes whereby many personal problems are solved.

Music--- Schubert To

The band has undertaken two projects which will mean a great deal to the future of music at Tennessee High. The first is a 60-piece symphonic band, better equipped than at present to play the best music. We plan to get better school instruments and hope that the school board will provide the room and practice room facilities necessary for the best results.

The second project is the establishment of a scholarship to send one student each summer to the National Music Camp, at Interlochen, Michigan, to study music and play in a fine High School Symphony Orchestra and Band under the direction of outstanding musicians and conductors from different parts of the country. The students who earn this opportunity will find here a highlight of their high school years and an unforgettable musical experience.

AMERICANISM WEEK

The Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored AMERICANISM WEEK and extended the activities to include a City-Wide Student Government Day, a day on which every elective and appointive office was filled by a high school student. A nominating convention met and nominated candidates for elective offices. Ballots were prepared and the entire student body participated in the election.

The following essay won first place in Bristol Tennessee High School and second place in the City-Wide Essay Contest during AMERICANISM WEEK. The awards, donated by the Independent Order of B'Nai Brith, were presented by Mr. Armand Hecht, an alumnus of Bristol Tennessee High School.

What Are The Responsibilities Of Good Citizenship

Far out in New York Harbor stands the image of a Lady holding a torch high above her head. The inscription on her base reads thus:

"Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the tempest-tossed to me;
I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

We who live in these United States are citizens of the land beyond the golden door, inhabitants of a paradise virtually untouched by the ravages of a great war. Yet how very few realize the opportunities bestowed upon us. Patriotism is a word that was shelved on V-J Day; good citizenship is outdated. We cannot know with how much blood the words "Liberty, Equality, Citizenship" were born.

This generation and the generations to come must realize that the problems of a tired and fearful people can only be solved by instilling in each and every heart the Galilean's Golden Rule. Never again will we be citizens of the United States alone; we are citizens of the world—and the world desperately needs our help in money and in time.

Foremost in the questions of this age is that of race and creed. Justice itself is undermined by the prejudiced beliefs that because God made a man black, red, or yellow, he cannot be treated as an equal—or because he chooses to worship in a different way, he is to be ridiculed. The Great Maker of All Things Good did not mean it to be so, and no civilization can survive such ignorances. Therefore high on the list of good citizenship is racial and religious tolerance.

So today Liberty stands with her torch upheld not for us alone, but for every nation. Onward we must go together, each carrying his share of the burden, good comrades and good citizens toward lasting peace and prosperity for all.—PEGGY LOU McCLELLAN, Senior

OUR SENIOR YEAR

- Sept. 3—All good things must come to an end; so summer did, and school started.
5—Cheerleaders Elected!!
7—First football game with Rule High. Who won? The Vikings, natch!
10—Could the bookkeepers explain the shoes in the hall, Mr. Grindstaff?
- Oct. 9—First issue of Winston's News Sheet—formerly known as the Maroon & White.
11—First Civitan outing at Muddy Millard's cabin. At least they didn't have to sit in the baseball stand that night.
25—Teachers' meeting at Knoxville! Bless E.T.E.A.
- Nov. 2—Vikings versus Indians = Scalped Vikings.
6—New addition to Maroon & White staff, Secretary-to-Editor.
8—Joint Virginia-Tennessee pep-meeting at Twin-Teen Tavern. Galloway, lucky boy, won a free ticket to the game.
10—Virginia-Tennessee game. We peeled the orange and draped it in black again.
16—"Pulchritude" outing at Easley's cabin.
21—Girl Reserves' Thanksgiving Assembly.
22—Thanksgiving holidays. Somebody please pass the bicarbonate.
30—Junior Play, "A Little Honey". It sure was sweet. Junior-Senior dance in the gym after the play.
- Dec. 7—Football Banquet. Um-m-m-m-m!
19—8:45 A.M. Tri-Hi-Y Traditional Candlelighting Service.
3:15 P.M. Christmas vacation started. "I hope I never hear another bell."
22—"46'ers" dined progressively.
- Jan. 3—Back to school. "Mr. Barksdale, can you tell me where my locker is?"
11—Boys' Hi-Y Assembly.
- Feb. 17-19—Exams—"I knew there was something I forgot to do."
8-10—Band Clinic at Johnson City. Eleven lucky and deserving people represented T. H. S.
19—Student Government Day. "Mayor Winston, can you tell us three ways to attract birds?"
- March 5—Spanish Banquet. Muchachas y Muchachos fiesta!
15—CADMEAS to press. Copy all in, likewise Pat, Doris, and Mrs. Marney.
- April 4—Annual Cadmus Club Party.
12—Spring Band Concert. Laurel Bowman, Student Conductor.
12—Seniors go to E. T. S. C. for High School Day.
18-23—Easter Holidays.
- May 3—Senior Play.
?—CADMEAS today! What a relief!
10—Senior Outing.
17—Senior Banquet. My, we Seniors are busy little people.
19—Baccalaureate.
23—Class Night! Who said we were crying?"
24—Graduation! Caps and gowns, smiles and tears, congratulations and good-bys—we're alumni now.

* * *

Thus closes a year of "democracy at work in a democratic school." The Cadmus Club hopes that this, your 1946 CADMEA, may help keep alive your fond memories of and your love for each other, the Administration and Faculty, and our Alma Mater.

"Hail to thee! Our Alma Mater, Tennessee, all hail!"
