our Alma Mater

In Honor

of

Mrs. Genevieve Caldwell

and

Miss Ethel Cofer

For your love, patience, and guidance to the students of Tennessee High School;

For the many years we knew each of you as a friend and as a teacher, who taught us the rules of life as you taught us English.

With love and sincerity, we honor you in this, the 1955 CADMEA.

"The music in my heart I bore
Long after it was heard no more."

— Wordsworth

MRS. CALDWELL

"Into my heart's treasury
I slipped a coin
That time cannot take
Nor thief purloin—
Oh, better than the minting
Of a gold-crown king
Is the safe-kept memory
Of a lovely thing."

— Teasdale

Alma Mater

On the city's southern border, reared against the sky.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. It contains four measures of music, primarily using chords and some eighth notes. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, containing four measures of music, primarily using chords. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

Proudly stands our Alma Mater As the years go by.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. It contains four measures of music. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, containing four measures of music. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

For-ward e-ven be our watchword Con-quer and pre-vail.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. It contains four measures of music. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, containing four measures of music. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater Tennessee, all hail!

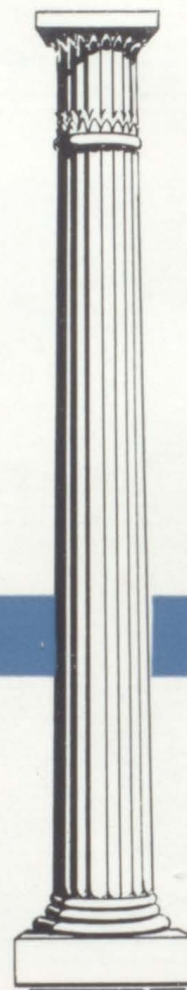

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. It contains four measures of music. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, containing four measures of music. The lyrics are written below the upper staff.

FOREWORD

In this, the 1955 CADMEA, we present to you
Our School, as we have known and loved it.

We have tried to catch the intangible spirit that is symbolic of Tennessee High, a spirit that finds its expression in the hearts of the students.

It is our hope that in the future years, this book will help you recall the memorable days of youth spent at Tennessee High.

Superintendent

Dr. Eyler has been with us since 1946, when he arrived to take the job as superintendent of the Bristol Tennessee Public Schools.

Dr. Eyler received his B.A. degree from the University of Georgia, his M.A. degree from Columbia University and his Ph.D. degree from Peabody College.

During his years in the Bristol school system, Dr. Eyler has shown us what a polished gentleman and fine leader he is.

Class Prophecy

While sitting at the typewriter the other day wondering how I could get into the future to fulfill my task as the class prophet, I started to experiment with self-hypnosis. Waving my bony finger in front of my eyes and repeating slowly to myself that I was going into the future, I slowly drifted off into a pink and black haze. When I awoke, sure enough, I was in Bristol in the year 1975.

After seeking the aid of the Pinkerton Detective Agency (Phil Pinkerton, President) to help me in my search, I set off to find out how our seniors fared over the years. The following is a consensus of what I found.

Louis Adams has been the official school guardian preceding the Virginia-Tennessee ball game for the past sixteen years. Four years in the Air Force, you know.

Marsha Anderson has replaced Miss Fortune as Home Ec. teacher. Two pretty girls in a row on that job.

Dennis "Brassy McNucks" Arnold is bouncer at the Windsor Fly-In. He is available as a bodyguard Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Nadine Ashbrook has inherited that large Kentucky estate, and is turning it's vast acreage over to the production of Rye and Corn.

I understand Mary Barr was put in prison recently but I heard that she has a large "Sell."

Ashley and Hopkins Reducing Salon. "Stay slim with trim Jim." Time has wrought many changes.

Calvin Bently, locally known as Smiley, advertises a leading brand of toothpaste. Flash your Ipana, Calvin.

Betty Boone is having a hard time disciplining her children. It would be hard for anyone with a personality as sweet as hers.

Carol Jo Booth is with the Boston Pops Orchestra, keeping the brass shiny.

Jack Bridgeman is head of the California Wrecking Company. His motto is, "Anything you can build, I can bust faster."

Frank Briscoe has a job which requires a lot of travel. He's the end man on the Georgia Ave. garbage truck run.

Jerry Bryant is trying to perfect his English accent. It's going to be a lifetime job.

Professor Nedrice Tankersley, prominent child psychologist, first put forth the Thonk and Clonk system of punishment. I wonder where he got his idea? ?

Charles Wade left to parts unknown. Nothing is known of him except that he ought to be plenty glad he didn't have to finish Senior English at Tennessee High. It wasn't so bad, (this is a neck saver clause!)

Cecilia Thomas and Mary Kay Vance are selling Mr. Maples' H₂S gas to motherly chickens. The hens believe the gas keeps the farmers away from their future chicken.

Sue "Blacky" Washeim died of a heart attack after she learned the world's supply of hydrogen peroxide was exhausted.

Class Prophecy

Helen Welch is filthy rich with a monthly income running into five figures. She cashed in on some of the T & I Club's ideas on how to raise money, mercenary soul that she is.

Margaret Whittaker and Barbara Whittamore are the mayors of both Bristols. With the Vikings in complete control, we should have a few good years.

Raymond Wood is a master in the affairs of the heart, running his organization called the "Lonely Phones Club," which is devoted to arranging blind dates between telephone operators and single street cleaners.

Rev. Ken Long is preaching the word to the inhabitants of the Alpha Centuria Star System.

Peggy Lunceford now owns the ultra-modern Stabo Hotel. Her motto is, "All work and no play makes jack."

George Maines is the new janitor at T.H.S. He has reportedly taken back everything he said about said job being easy.

Mathis and Mauk run the huge "Muscle Emporium," or "Don's Barbell Barn for the Body Beautiful."

Roby, "The Wild One" Price is the immediate past president of the Smokey Mountain Motor and Jet-o-cycle Club. His rumble seat has "Donny Boy" embroidered on it in fine pink lace.

Scott "Highland" McBerry is raising a bonnie young Scottish clan. By the cut o' his kilt, I knew he ha' Scotch blood in him.

Phil Pinkerton never recovered from his long fast, prior to Class Night and the party following. Glutton, for punishment, what?

Peggy Mercer has made millions teaching other girls how to be as poised, cheerful and considerate as herself.

Bill Pike now owns the Windsor Fly-In. As a personal favor, I wish he'd throw out the bums and dead-beats which hang out in the round booth, but never order a thing but tall glasses of water.

Shirley Lyons fainted from sheer shock when Jim Hopkins tipped a waitress a five spot at the restaurant she owns.

Pearly Malcolm, Barbara that is, finally bought Crystal Pool. She's up there so much in the summer, that I don't blame her.

If Slaughter must know, Mary Lou McCroskey is the reason Shane didn't come back.

John "Stuffy" McDaniels, the boy with all the American History answers, is the president of a bank. He had the personality for it. (We shouldn't talk about a fellow Scotsman like this.)

Joe Miller got arrested for his draftsman's ability. Couldn't keep from etching copies of hundred dollar bills on copper plates.

Major General William Hodge persuaded poor old Joe Gray to join up, with tales of the wonderful life of a Marine. No wonder Joe uses one of Hodge's pictures as a dart board.

Mickey Greer is attending the Brushy Mountain College for Cons. He received a scholarship after buying certain cards from the wrong person.

Crashing through the underbrush, it's Betsy Greever on the trail. She's a white hunter in Africa now.

King Hagey, well-known Bristol lifeguard, knows every high class dive in Bristol. The kind done on a diving board naturally.

Mary Lynn Hagy has quite the kids. Her towel rack has three towels embroidered with "his," "hers," and "theirs." P.S., they're all the spitting image of Mickey.

Patsy Hammond and Ruth Stophel are co-editors of a book of wise old sayings. Their title saying is "He who keeps quiet may be thought a fool, but he who opens his big bazzoo, confirms it." A copy of this book was given to the Senior Class of '56.

Virginia Krill pitched an inning in the major leagues and made the Brooklyn Dodgers live up to their name.

Class Prophecy

Jane Hartley has developed into one of the most industrious, patient, and hard-working girls ever to leave this high school. She had to be, to marry "Shifty Knees" Helton. Bob is still with the Harlem Globe Trotters.

Clarence Helms is head of the Typesetters' Union. They nicknamed him John L. for short.

David "Beau Brummel" Hancock owns the largest chain of men's clothing stores this side of Beaver Creek.

Nancy Henley is still trying to get the senior homerooms to follow the Bible Club's devotional list.

Sam Hobbs is the world champion Pin Weight boxer. He's like lightning in the ring. Never strikes twice in the same place.

Ada Hicks is secretary to Mal Utleys, Jr., the new D. O. instructor. He's already called "baldy" by some of his students. A note on the white-haired Utleys senior, he's now at a rest home for aged D. O. coordinators.

Lois Hickman made her life work the deciphering of such high school sayings as "What is this mutiny?", "You don't sweat me none," and "You're a good kid."

Lloyd Miller has gone to Louisiana with a banjo on his knee. Army field maneuvers.

Patsy Moncier is employed polishing Libera's candelabra.

Ike "Caveman" Moore is the owner of the beautiful Bluff City Caverns. His chief guide, Louiege, says all the girls are talking about the improvements caves have made in Ike's style.

Sandra Moore is a money-lender. Her slogan is "More for your money."

Katy Morrell, bless her sweet Irish heart, married a boy from the old sod, Ivan Ivortski.

Martha Jo Morris is the owner of the Bristol power system. With all that electricity, she could really get juiced.

Larry Morton runs Morton's Grocery. Well, at least the truck and the broom.

Allen O'Dell, unbeknownst to us all, must get his get up and go from Tom. (How did he sneak in here?)

"Chief" O'Dell has his own Indian tribe, wigwam, and like any good Indian, several oil wells along the banks of Beaver Creek.

Glenn Osborne inherited the vast holdings of his uncle in Abingdon, Alphonso Benedictus Clause.

Roy Owens retired shortly after making a killing in the infamous card scandal of '55. I understand he recovered from the brain-washing.

Larry Parker is with the Met. Once a year he gives a stirring rendition of "We Three Kings."

Terry Passmore is the celebrated matinee idol currently starring in the Broadway production "The Gold Rush is Over and the Blue Moon is On."

Frank Patrick told the Army when he was drafted that he had ability as a mathematician and in keeping with the Army's policy of putting round pegs in round holes Frank is in charge of cleaning rusty rifle barrels.

Baker Phillips is with the Washington Redskins professional baseball team. This great major league pitcher has three deliveries, the high ball, low ball, and bean ball.

Bobby Honaker got so tired of bumming lights between periods, that he bought the Ronson Lighter Company lock, stock and barrel.

Travis King is a psychiatrist. O'er her door a sign reads, "When you get mad, see Red."

I was unable to find any trace of Peggy Mitchell or Bonnie Honaker. Some say they were jilted in love and joined the Foreign Legion. I often wondered why that organization disbanded.

Don "Hans Konrad" Honeycutt is a world renowned playwright and Shakesperian actor, famous for his role of King Henry swearing a good round oath.

The Jeffries boys, Bill and Bob, are currently working on a process to rejuvenate old cigar butts. At least that's what they said when I caught them shooting ducks on State Street.

June Johnson is a successful forger and rubber check maker. She says she owes her entire success to the practice she received drawing up notes and excuses in high school.

Class Prophecy

Jim Jones is an ex-governor of Tennessee. If his success at getting elected to offices at T.H.S. was any indication, it's a small wonder.

Lynn Justus is a nurse at Bristol Memorial Hospital, so I'd try to stay well while in this neck of the woods.

Larry Kelly, the only Irishman on Senator McCarthy's investigation committee, has a new definition for Communists . . . Red-blooded Americans.

Bobby King, lawyer extraordinary, recently won the controversial and much debated case as to whether or not the light in a beverage cooler went out when the door was shut. To prove the point in favor of his client, Wilhelm Von Rucker, he allowed the door to be shut with him inside. He came out stiff as a board.

Coy Langford, the budding young architect, was contracted to design the new Tennessee High School (finally). Oh well, another one would have had to be built in a few years anyway.

Barbara Leonard has two new song hits on Capitol. "Yer Kiss Was Jest a Drap in Me Bucket O' Love" and "Hi Knew Hit Was Over When Ye Flang Me Down The Well."

Sue Link's personality got her into the theatre. At least as far as the lobby. (they threw her out.)

Cleveland Phipps isn't with us any longer. He lit a match, the better to see the inside of his gas tank and it rained Phipps and car for over three weeks.

Emily Phipps is writing a new text book: "Senior English Made Easy."

Carolyn Pulliam is still married to the Billy Graham of 1975.

Genevieve Ramsey and Josie Sangid are instructing young girls on how to look interested in class and soak up nothing.

Jimmy Reed puts his fine bass voice to good use. You can hear him on weekdays in the Fifth Street Park singing, "Hotta dogs, poppa corn, anda reala good peanuts," in a fine, pear-shaped toned, basso profundo.

Bill Rexrode won the Davis Cup in Tennis by beating Don five sets in a row. Rex needed a new mug.

Barbara Sieber has organized the "Aren't We Glad We're From the North Club, Brooklyn Division."

Libby Rogers has her own show on WCYB-TV. Some say she had influence in high circles at the station, but I don't believe a word of it.

Betty Rowlett, first inter-galactic missionary, recently published her memoirs entitled "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under Heaven" or "You Can't Take It With You When You Go."

Don Ruzicka is now the night watchman at Sullins. He accomplished the dream of every hot-blooded young high school lad.

Carl Spangler is a successful plumber. He always does you right.

Margaret Sparger and Jean Stidham are the first girls in history to mess up the fool-proof inter-planetary space-warp drive with a hair pin.

Patsy Stewart has a cooking school on radio. Her subject this week is "How to pluck a chicken without losing any of the fat."

Luther Stinnett recently graduated from the Abingdon Business College and is employed by the Atomics Anonymous.

I see Ann Dugger quite often. She is a pledge collector for the American Red Cross, and she's gunning me for that dime I pledged in '55.

According to the state law of Tennessee, calling for the equal division of property between husband and wife, Sandra Easley now owns half of the Bristol Herald Courier. You brains figure this one out.

Lois Elliott shot herself after reading the uncensored version of this prophecy. Bill Massey has been gunning for the writer ever since.

Don Emmert is one of the leading dairy farmers of the South. He has the largest herd of milk cows east of the Mississippi.

Lynda Denton is musical instructor and mother to three of the cutest children you ever saw. I defy you to make something funny out of this.

Doris Fine is hanging around the high school teaching undergraduates how to have that sophisticated Senior look while still a Freshman.

Class Prophecy

Don Flick is making a fortune raising and selling snipe hounds for greenhorn hunters.

Andy "Buggy" Francis had to vacate the old homestead. Under his loving care, his little animal friends multiplied to such an extent that he and his family had to move out to what had formerly been the frog house.

Giles "Curley" Farris is now with the Grand Old Opry. He's the assistant usher on the balcony, aisle three, section "B2".

After making nervous wrecks out of all red-blooded American boys at Tennessee High in '55, Carolyn Frost is a sure bet to take the aging Marilyn Monroe's place in pictures soon.

Carolyn Garrison finally lived down the infamy of being caught in a drive-in with Caine. With this blot gone from her name, she hooked her a man, and is happily married.

Harry Gilmer is the pastor of the First Buddhist Church of Bristol. Idols for the idol I always heard.

Last time I heard from George Gillenwater, he had melted on the sands of Paris Island.

Everytime Kay Glover Rader passes, all the girls sing "Wedding Bells are Breaking Up That Old Gang of Mine."

Senor Franklin Delano Gerace is the Dictator of a small South American country. The girls down there think he's the greatest thing since Bolivar.

Mary Sue Boyd composed the hit song "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," after looking over Miss Phillips list of those Seniors who didn't turn in a term paper.

Harriet Caldwell is a Baptist preacher's wife. I wouldn't make a book on your not knowing the answer.

Jane Campbell and Ruby Cannon are cooks on the Earth-Venus rocket run. They believe the way to a man's heart's through his stomach.

Grace Carmack made a fortune right after the close of the prohibition of '68, with her hit play, "Happy Times Are Here Again."

Joe Caldwell runs that famous restaurant, "Caldwell's Retreat." Jack Morton is the official gourmet.

Dorothy Carrier is married to a well-known pro-football back known as "Rubber Legs" Poore.

Ronnie Carter is an engineer for the Virginia State Road Service. He engineers ditches with a pick ax.

J. B. "Iron Lungs" Combs has been substituting for the local stadium loud-speaker system after it went on the blink.

Because of her success in the movies, Janet Cornett had the Mae West Title renamed for her.

Arlene Daughtery is seen in a local side show as the only girl in the world with hair the color of the rainbow. I knew she would make it.

A sign on a side street in Bristol: "Don's Dump, Drop in and Dance; Featuring 'Hot Lips' Davis and his tin bugle."

Jane Deboard didn't do so well, poor kid. She only has fourteen banks, a couple of airlines, and a mortgage on these United States.

Ann Dishner married Liberace. She appears on television as his mother.

Wanda Dishner is faring sumptuously in the WAC's. It seems she got her sister as a top kick and she's been on KP ever since.

Bill Dishner can be seen changing the marquee of the Paramount every Friday night.

Louise "Grindy" Doan is the most pleasant dentist in town. She has a standard supply of 4,238 jokes, which she tells as she digs away at your most tender tooth.

Me? Well, I'm pan-handling on State Street and giving the collections to the Bristol Tennessee building fund. This will be the only way we'll get a new school gym.

Awakening from my hypnotic jag with a start, remembering I have a term paper to write, I bid ye all a fond adieu.

NICHOLAS CONWAY CALVIN CAINE,
Class Prophet of 1955

Americanism

The Tennessee High students elected to represent Tennessee High in Student Government Day, February 22, 1955, spent an enlightening day learning about their respective offices. They had lunch with the Junior Chamber of Commerce and were taken to the Virginia Bristol Water works in the afternoon.

The offices the students held were: Jimmy Jones, mayor; George Maines, commissioner of streets; Jimmy Ashley, commissioner of finance; Jane Hartley, recorder; Ralph O'Dell, chief of police; Bill Rexrode, fire chief; Harry Gilmer, city attorney; Jimmy Reed, superintendent of schools; J. B. Combs, Sue Washeim, Don Honeycutt, Barbara Malcolm, Lynn Justus, King Hagey, Board of Education.

"Here Comes Charlie"

The Senior Class of 1955 presented for its class play, Here Comes Charlie by Jay Tobias, a three-act comedy which left all of us laughing. The capable leadership of Mr. George Jenkins and student director Lois Elliott, made this one of the most successful plays ever to be presented at Tennessee High. The cast included Sue Washeim, an Ozark hillbilly, and King Hagey, a young businessman, in the lead roles; Ike Moore, as the old butler; Mary Kay Vance, as the domineering aunt; Harriet Caldwell, as the sophisticated socialite; Jimmy Ashley, as Larry's college pal; Mary Barr, as wealthy Mrs. Smythe-Kersey; Jerry Bryant, as her son; Barbara Malcolm, as the Irish maid; and Don Honeycutt, as her sweetheart.

Left to right: Ike Moore, Sue Washeim, King Hagey, Mary Barr, Mary Kay Vance, Harriet Caldwell, Barbara Malcolm, Jimmy Ashley, Jerry Bryant, Don Honeycutt.

"The Perfect Idiot"

This year's Junior Play is one that will remain in our hearts for many years to come. The presentation was The Perfect Idiot, a three-act comedy written by Eunice and Grant Atkisson. The play was directed by Mr. George Jenkins and the student director was Freddie Weaver. The whole Junior Class feels that without the capable direction of these two, the play would have not been the success it was. The leading members of the cast were Virginia Carter as "Linda Barnard" and Tom Daniel as "Daniel Tennyson." The other members of the cast were: Eleanor Gillespie, Ken Hardie, Bill Brinkley, Shirley Dunn, Harold Honeycutt, David Harris, Ruth Gillenwater, Annette Edwards, Ray Henry, Anne Eyler, Ronnie Odum, Helen Deere, and Gary Weston.

The Juniors entertained the Seniors after the play with a dance, "Blue Fantasy."

CHEERLEADERS

Shout, Students, Shout

Shout, Students, Shout! School spirit was exceptional this year of '54-'55. We, the cheerleaders, found pride in working for such a wonderful school and student body. Our pride was really polished when the school topped off the year by receiving the Big-Five Basketball Sportsmanship Trophy with the highest rating ever given in the Big-Five Conference for sportsmanship. Hats off to the Vikings!

The Vikings in Action

Football '54

The Vikings opened the season with Morristown, dropping a close one 19-14.

After journeying to Greeneville and losing 25-14 to the Green Devils, the Vikings played host to Unaka in their home opener, winning 19-6.

The Big Five Conference race got under way with the Vikings dropping a last minute heart breaker 19-12 to Johnson City.

Elizabethton sank a fighting Viking ship 45-21, and Erwin won over Tennessee High 32-0 in an exciting Big Five contest.

Closing out the Big Five season, the Vikings dropped a 28-7 decision to champion Kingsport.

The Vikings defeated Abingdon 15-0, and Clintwood 7-0, to set the stage for the big game with Virginia High.

The Bearcats won out 21-0 in a disappointing city championship battle to bring a close to an exciting season.

BASKETBALL

Front row: COACH PIERCE, K. REED, DELP, MIKEAL, HATCHER, HELTON, J. REED.
Second row: JONES, GREEN, BRIDGEMAN, KINNICK, RUZICKA, ROUSE.

Coach G. B. Pierce's Tennessee High basketekers compiled a seasonal record of nine won and thirteen lost. The Vikings were paced by a couple of sharpshooters—Captain "Bitsy" Helton and Southpaw Lester Delp. Delp was high point man for the Vikings with 366 points for a 17.4 points per game average. Helton scored 258 points for an average of 13.6 per game. Rebounder Earl Hatcher and floormen Jim Reed and Ken Reed displayed excellent play at times during the season.

Tennessee High's Vikings opened their 19-game baseball campaign March 25 by invading Bluff City, weather permitting.

Coach Ted Alexander was optimistic about his team's chances against a schedule which includes some of the best teams in Southwest Virginia and Upper East Tennessee.

He was counting pretty heavily upon the nine lettermen and some new material.

The Vikings closed their season by entering the tournament play for District One.

TRACK

First row, left to right: Jimmy Garrett, Joe Goodpasture, David Hancock, Jesse Taylor, Tex Welliver, Larry Heninger, Bill Mason. Second row: Earl Hatcher, Steve Heninger, Wallace Carr, James Earl Penley, Ned Davis, David Gillispie, Harry Black, Buddy Broome. Third row: Coach Smith, Paul Dishner, Bob Helton, Guy Brown, Jack Shaw, Don Mathis, Norman Poore, "Chief" O'Dell, J. B. Combs, Nick Demmo, Larry Smith.

The Tennessee High track team turned in a sensational year on the cinders as Coach Rupert Smith's Vikings won several honors. Among these honors were winning the two-mile relay and placing second in the sprint medley in state competition. Also, the Vikings finished second and third in the hundred yard dash.

The Vikings tied for the Big Five Conference crown; finished second in the District and fourth in the East Tennessee meets; and defeated Johnson City and Kingsport during the regular season.

Three returning lettermen, David Hancock, Paul Dishner, and Norman Poore, form the nucleus for this year's team. The Vikings have several meets scheduled for this year, including a three-way affair with Johnson City, and Jefferson High of Roanoke.

Coach Smith is to be commended for turning out strong track teams each year and we take our hats off to him. Best of luck on the cinders, Vikings!

MR. GENE FELTY

PHYSICAL

The physical education classes for boys are under the supervision of Mr. Gene Felty.

A varied program of activities is carried on to meet the needs of all boys, and tournaments of major and minor sports are held annually. Among the boys' activities are football, basketball, volleyball, softball, and gymnastics.

Sportsmanship and citizenship are created in athletics.

EDUCATION

The physical education classes for girls are under the supervision of Mrs. G. B. Pierce.

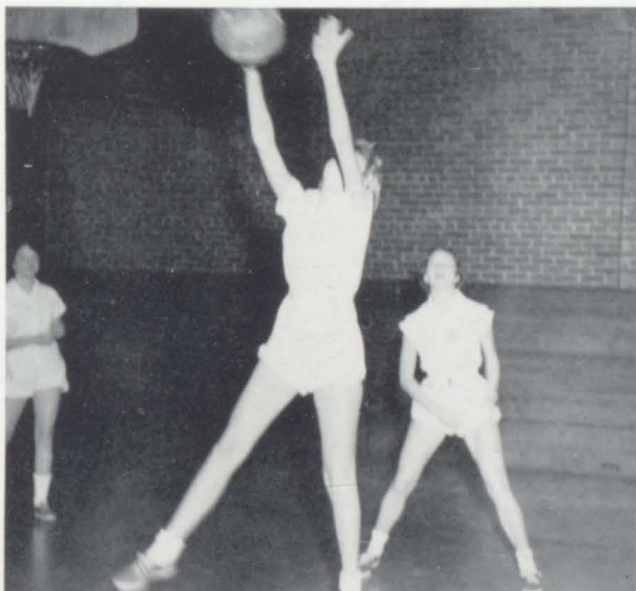

Among the girls' activities are softball, battieball, volleyball, and tennis.

Both girls and boys also have a wonderful privilege of taking driving lessons under the direction of Coach G. B. Pierce. After these lessons the girls and boys become safe and careful drivers.

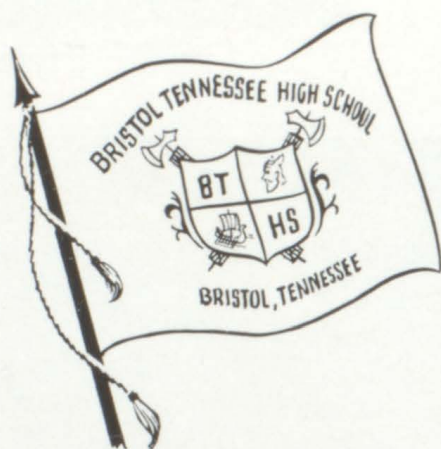

These activities always make our gym period the happiest period.

Chorus

Our Tennessee High School Chorus has been directed by Mr. Paluzzi for six years. During these six years the Chorus has vastly improved and become an important part of our curriculum. Both Chorus and Band meet for an hour every day and regular class credit is given.

Chorus tryouts were held at the close of last year. Since there were so many who wanted to join, only Juniors and Seniors were accepted.

Miss Katherine Kesner is our wonderful, reliable, and able accompanist. She was assisted by Nancy Rush during the performance of our Christmas cantata.

Many hours of rehearsal were put into The Christmas Story by Fred Waring. It was presented at the Paramount Theatre, at the December P.T.A., and at several civic organizations.

Throughout the year performances were held for local colleges, schools and civic groups, as well as the Chorus' concert.

We are all proud of the Chorus, Mr. Paluzzi, and Miss Kesner for their splendid work and accomplishments.

Dear Diary

*This is the least to say the most,
It's not very? good, so we won't boats!
Our names are—oh, whell, y'all know,
So come on, gang, let's go, go, go!*

AUGUST

2nd—Football practice starts with Don Honeycutt, Jimmy Jones, and Ralph “Chief” O’Dell as our co-captains; if that isn’t the maddest!

Now hear this this! Now hear this! Jack Morton is our new drum major. Well, paint me a stripe and call me a stinkie.

SEPTEMBER

2nd—Dance and pep-meeting, now this just slays us!

3rd—Help, police, we’ve been robbed! Morristown just beat us by five points. (Our first football game.)

7th—Drag out your books—school just started. Oh, this is such a beastly bore!

8th—New Cadmus Club members elected. (How’d we both get in on that deal?)

9th—Mary Barr was selected Band Sponsor; caramba cucaracha!

10th—It shouldn’t happen to a dog. Tennessee High 14, Greeneville 24.

11th—54’ers Dance at the Hut. Won’t they ever leave?

13th Maroon and White subscriptions started today, get yours first chance you get!

14th—First Southern Assembly program, man that was cool!

16th—It is that the Juniors ordered their class rings today. They did!

17th—Tennessee High 19, Unaka 6! Hey, Sam Spade, how’d you figure that one out? Way to go!

20th—We are Diary Editors—Don’t laugh, you may be next!

21st—Senior Class officers elected.

29th—Mr. Boretsky let us watch the World Series on T.V. That’s all right, Cleveland, we’ll win next time.

OCTOBER

1st—Somebody just raided the Joint; BTHS 12, Johnson City 19.

2nd—Border Guild Follies. We had three queens from THS.

5th—Maroon & White and CADMUS staff go to the newspaper office. Can you top that?

6th—CADMEA subscriptions, go question the mad group.

7th—Key Club initiation; down, boys, down.

8th—Tennessee High 21, Elizabethton 40 . . . We’ll just shut our eyes!

9th—What’s buzzin’ cuzzin? That’s no buzz, that’s a band. Band Festival; our band and majorettes both won first place awards. Congratulations!

11th—First six weeks’ tests. Boy, my midnight oil is all used up!

13th—Stop the presses . . . Legator, Prophet, Historian and Giftorians are elected.

15th—Tennessee High 0, Erwin 32, uh oh, somebody popped a boo-hoo!

17th—Anyone for a train ride?

19th—Mister, I want a shoe shine! (Civitan Initiation.)

Dear Diary

21st—Jingle bells, jingle bells! Anchor Club folded Christmas seals.

22nd—Terrible, terrible news! BTHS 7, Kingsport 28 . . . Ugh! We had a car parade before the game; now let's get that 'chine on the road!

27th—Teachers go to Knoxville . . . ho, ho, ho!

29th—Tennessee High 15, Abingdon 0, Hip Hip Hooray!

30th—Hallowe'en. Good-bye, you hooded little monsters!

NOVEMBER

26th—Oh, my stomach!

JANUARY

1st—Happy New Year! (Gosh, we almost blew a gasket!)

3rd—First day of school. We knew it couldn't last forever!

6th—Southern Assembly Program. (It's not everyone who can blow up a balloon.) He was a real character!

7th—Tennessee High beat Johnson City, Ho, Ho, Ho!

8th—Why, we beat Blountville, too, dig that!

14th—Injuns scalped us; 55-42. What is this, Mutiny?

15th—Band Clinic tryouts; never do that!

Viking Boosters car given away, boo hoo, should have known all along, we wouldn't get that car.

17th—Ha ha, Betsy!

19th—And out of a tremendous blue sky, it snowed today.

21st—Well, we played Erwin tonight! Know what I mean, Jellybean?

22nd—Tennessee High 67, Virginia High 73; no, no, no! (I guess we caged their B-team, though!)

24th—Head for the hills, "Toppers!" THS 60, Johnson City 54.

Dear Diary

24th—First semester exams. Have you developed that new technique called Teenius Weenius mentis corpus psychos? No, we haven't either; but we think it's a phylum.

28th—We raid'um wigwam, they take 'um scalps! THS 56, Kingsport 90.

FEBRUARY

1st—Southern Assembly program; and we'll all line up and go to Switzerland.

*This is the close of a perfect year,
Hip hip hooray, we're out my dear!
Here's to the teachers who've tried their best,
We'll dig them a grave so they can rest!*

Bye, you all,

MARY KAY and BETTY

A HISTORY AND A CHALLENGE

We, the Seniors of 1955, have arrived at the portals of distinction which is the rich reward of four years of work, play, and devotion. As we look back on these years, we find sorrow and happiness; both of which have made us better persons for having experienced them.

We count these years of youth, the rich years, the years which are never lost, unless we lost them before they were gained. It cannot be said that we will never live them again, for they will live eternally in our hearts and minds.

A broad view of the past would reveal that we were different from other classes in several respects. We are the first class to have completed four years in the Tennessee High School building in a number of years; others having spent their freshman year at the Junior High School. This transition, however, caused us not to receive our diplomas from Junior High.

We made an early voyage to T.H.S. in the fall of 1951. We could see, sailing ahead of us, another ship, filled with Junior Vikings. (Hmm—I wonder who they could be.) The sea was much calmer than we had expected, and we reached the joyous shores of T.H.S.

We found ourselves, instead of Seniors at T.J.H.S.—the distinction we never knew—lowly freshmen at T.H.S. The upperclassmen, however, had little time to bother us; that year, there were more newcomers to T.H.S. than there were upperclassmen.

We learned how to study, worked hard, and lived through the initiations, only to find that our freshman year was over.

One step more up the ladder and the fall of '52 dawned upon us with even brighter rays. We realized that we were sophomores. Memories of Julius Caesar, dissecting frogs, and other unforgettables, reflect on the screen of that year. Passing much faster than the succeeding year, in 1952 we joined more clubs, made more friends, and worked even harder.

Juniors! Yes, that's what we were in 1953, and proud of our name. Visions of splendor filled our thick little heads, until we discovered that we had more responsibility and more work to be done.

Time flew, and by one week before Christmas holidays, our long-awaited class rings began to arrive.

Probably the outstanding occasion of our Junior year was our junior play, The Robe. If, for nothing else, we can be justly proud of our record presentation. Memories of it will continue to be cherished by each of us. The largest crowd ever to attend a junior play saw our production of The Robe. And, it netted more money than any other play preceding it.

Our Tea, held in the Library during Junior Week, at which the seniors were our guests, was a big success.

The Junior Prom was another great success. The decorations were the loveliest that had been seen for some time.

We formally took the helm of the Viking ship as the Senior Class, on Class Night, 1954. On that memorable occasion, we were instilled with our first visions of Seniordom—only to have them stagnate during the summer vacation months.

Upon our return to T.H.S., after the summer; and, having made our debut on Class Night, we found some new additions to our faculty. A few new faces and work in great abundance were also found. We found that if one could do his English and manage to get all of the other activities in, he indeed was a Senior.

December was highlighted by our senior play, Here Comes Charlie. It was gay and riotous, and was enjoyed by all. We invited the Juniors to our dance after the play, and we feel that they enjoyed it as much as we.

Upon our return from the Christmas holidays, we found that we scarcely knew what it was to be a Senior. It was then that we realized our days at T.H.S. were numbered. We managed to turn our term papers in on time, amid ordering our cards and invitations and getting our caps and gowns.

March came, and with it, the Washington trip. It was a wonderful excursion and we shall never forget the happy time we had. May was really a busy month, highlighting the Prom, the Banquet, Baccalaureate, and the outing, in that succession.

Dr. Tom Fry delivered the Baccalaureate sermon with his unusually great appeal and challenge. He has endeared himself in our hearts.

With June came Class Night, when we handed down our axes and shield to the Junior Class, hoping that they would keep them as bright and shining as those before them. The next day came, bringing forth tears and joy; tears because we were parting and joy because we were graduating. More than that, it brought forth a new era in which it is in our power to be the greatest or the smallest. We are taking that step—accepting that challenge—hoping that what has been done shall not have been in vain and that what we may do in this new era shall be worthy, first, of God, second, of our nation and world, and last, of ourselves. But, we would leave behind a challenge, that future classes might far exceed ours, with the help of the Divine Master, in the building of His Kingdom, however worthy or unworthy our effort.

HARRY W. GILMER: Historian

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the Senior Class of Bristol Tennessee High School, in order to leave our personal belongings and accomplishments to those we love, do ordain and witness this Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1955.

First: To the Faculty and Administration we leave our deepest appreciation for the endless patience and untiring effort they have expended in our behalf.

Second: To the Freshmen we leave the hope of becoming Sophomores.

Third: To the Sophomores we leave our desire for knowledge, hoping they will receive high honors.

Fourth: To the Juniors our personal bequests are as follows:

I, Earl Hatcher, bequeath my tricky basketball shots to Lester Delp and Bob Garrett.

I, Don Davis, bequeath my smooth speaking voice to Joe Swiney.

We, Louise Doan, Emily Phipps, and Peggy Lunceford, will all our answers to Mr. Utleye's questions to Nancy Fuller, Jane Joyner, and Myrtle Foster.

I, Harry Gilmer, will my accomplishments of getting along with both the teachers and students to be divided among the Junior Class.

I, Bill Pike, leave the honor of entering Tennessee High and causing a stir to any other "Yankees."

We, Barbara Sieber, Jo Ann Shaw, and Margaret Sparger, leave our good nature and boundless energy to the student body of Tennessee High.

I, Nick Caine, leave my lovable character and position as general top dog scape goat to Gilbert Carter.

We, Ronnie Carter, Glenn Osborne and Frank Patrick, will our witty remarks in American History Class to Harry Black and Joe Goodpasture to be used next year.

I, Bill Jeffries, leave my comical characteristics to Dan Boyll.

I, Lynda Denton, leave my friendliness to Jane Moore and my smile to Gleem.

I, Charles Wade, leave my Hi-Y dues to ye ole club since I left kinda' early.

We, Frank Gerace, Luther Stinette and Don Mathis, leave our great knowledge of all things to Bud Broome and Jerry Skaggs.

We, Sue Link, Betty Rowlette, and Carolyn Pulliam, will our present dignity to Sandra Smith, Jackie Horner, Sara Young, and Shirley Dunn.

We, George Gillenwater and Don Mauk, leave our serious attitudes toward school to Buddy Carrier, Barry Coulter and Alex Smith. (Don't take it too seriously, boys.)

We, Mary Sue Boyd and Shirley Lyons, will our diamond rings to any girl who can't get a man . . . !

We, Jane DeBoard, Ada Hicks and Josie Sangid, will our ability to make good grades and still have a good time to Ann McIver and Barbara Ramsey.

I, Betsy Greever, bequeath my sweet smile to Lucille Waddell.

We, Jack Bridgeman and Dennis Arnold, will our night life to Ed Luster.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, Peggy Mitchell, Pat Fields, Barbara Shockley and Martha Jo Morris, leave our ability to laugh and giggle but still accomplish our duties to Peggy Peters and Barbara Burnette.

I, George Maines, bequeath my "Willing Spirit" to work for the Key Club to Tommy Snapp.

We, Ann Dugger, Bonnie Honaker, Grace Carmack, Betty Boone, and June Johnson, leave our kindness and thoughtfulness to Betty Grindstaff and Imogene Childress.

We, Bill Hodge, Carl Spangler and Bobby Honaker, will our character to Bill Beville and Gaston Cowell.

We, Frank Brisco, Sam Hobbs and Giles Farris, leave our laziness to David Cooper and Joe Bouton.

We, Dorothy Carrier and Norman Poore, leave our steady romance to Larry Canaday and Evelyn Rogers.

I, Ike Moore, leave my interest in horses to Inky Freels.

We, Don Flick and Joe Gray, leave our "endless conversations" to Allen Meadows, Sam Dean, and Gene Camp-er.

I, Phil Pinkerton, leave my original dance steps and proof-testing to Johnny Slatery.

We, Jean Stidham and Ruby Cannon, leave our blushes to Barbara Arnold and Eleanor Gillespie.

We, Guy Oliver and Larry Morton, leave our baseball talent to Freddy Kilday.

We, Mary Lynn Hagy and Barbara Leonard, leave our beautiful voices to Annette Edwards, Sylvia Godsey and Ronny Odum.

We, Sue Washeim and J. B. Combs, leave our boundless school spirit to the entire Junior Class; there'll be an abundance for all.

I, John McDaniel, leave my connections at the colleges and my little black book to Charles Jones.

I, Lois Elliott, co-editor of the Cadmea, leave my secrets on how to keep a man while working on the Cadmea, and also my head-ache pills to the future editors.

We, Don Honeycutt, Jimmy Jones and "Chief" O'Dell, leave our positions as co-captains of the Viking eleven to Wallace Carr and Tom Daniel.

We, Helen Welch, Nadine Ashbrook, Barbara Whittamore, Patsy Hammond, and Kay Glover, leave our Mrs. Degrees to all F.H.A. members.

We, Jane Campbell and Arlene Daughtery, leave our dangling earrings to Janet Campbell and Roma Quales.

We, Joe Miller and Andy Francis, bequeath our desire for chemical knowledge to Steve Heningner.

I, Bill Wolfe, leave my front seat in Senior English to Ed Snapp, hoping he will make more use of it than I did.

We, Carolyn Frost and Peggy Mercer, bequeath our baton-twirling accomplishments to Charlotte Widener and Nancy Bruce.

I, Allen O'Dell, leave my superior height and pleasing personality to Riley King.

We, Margaret Whittaker and Cecilia Thomas, leave our athletic ability to Janice Bowers and Betty Jo Rutherford.

We, Mary Kay Vance, Barbara Malcolm, and Mary Barr, bequeath our acting abilities to Helen Deere and Ruth Gillenwater.

We, Carol Jo Booth, Ann Dishner and Joan Smallwood, will our undying love for the band to Barbara Nelson, Lena and Irene Priestley, and Jody Spradlyn.

I, Jimmy "Money Bags" Ashley, leave my thriving photography business to David Harris.

We, Roby Price and Don Ruzicka, leave our enthusiasm for parties to the Junior Class Sponsors.

I, Marsha Anderson, leave my position as President of the True Blondes Club to Anne Carmack and Betty Wilson.

I, Lois Hickman, leave my ability to be tardy so often and have so many reasonable excuses to those who ride the school buses.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Jimmy Reed, will my basketball skill to O. W. Rouse and James Green.

I, Patsy Stewart, leave my sense of humor to Freddie Weaver and Phyllis Barker.

I, Coy Langford, leave my position and privileges in D. O. to Allen Bourne, resulting from hard labor, of course.

I, Joe "Lover Boy" Caldwell, bequeath my gay manner, lovely voice, and my position in the band to Gary Weston.

I, Clarence Helms, leave my manliness and excess weight to Robert Stinette.

I, Jerry Bryant, leave my talent for tickling the eighty-eight to Anne Eyler and Nancy Rush, although they certainly don't need it. They can also have my "Bugs" if they want them.

I, Katie Morrell, leave my love for sparkling rings, especially those with a boy attached, to Susie Carter.

I, Jesse Taylor, leave my love for speeding cars to Bob Boring.

I, Libby Rogers, bequeath my place in the art galleries to Bill Brinkley.

We, Don Emmert and Ned Tankersley, leave our Bachelor's Buttons to Kellus Fisher and Dick Keaton.

I, Bill Rexrode, will my collection of hearts to Paul Cook.

We, Bob King and Scott McBerry, leave our inquiring minds to Bud Slusher.

I, Trav King, leave my position as sweetheart of the Boy's Hi-Y to any Junior girl deserving the honor.

We, Louis Adams and Terry Passmore, leave our book entitled "How To Wash Socks To Suit a Coach, to any future football managers.

We, Sandra Easley, Patsy Moncier, and Doris Fine, leave our quiet conversations (?) to Pat Easterly, Nancy Rush, and Linda Phipps.

We, Raymond Wood, Cleveland Phipps, Ken Long, Calvin Bentley, and Bob Jeffries, will our ability to earn a dollar to Robert Campbell, Don Pasour, Allen Bourne, and Wayne Jones.

I, Jim Hopkins, leave my ability to explain so clearly all physics apparatus, to Miss Rhea.

I, Mickey Greer, leave my sport writing expertness to Tad Bowers.

We, Jane Hartley and Bob Helton, leave our positions as best-dressed to Jackie Stone and Ken Reed.

We, Mary Lou McCroskey, Larry Parker, and Lynn Justus, leave our ingenuity in handling and heading the Maroon and White staff, to Pam Rockwell, Barbara Carmody and Harry "Shotgun" Williams.

I, David Hancock, leave my position as Sheik of the Senior Class to Johnny Kinnick.

I, Nancy Henley, bequeath my loquaciousness, to Phyllis Barker.

I, Jack Morton, will my drum major's outfit to Mr. Paluzzi.

We, Carolyn Garrison and Sandra Moore, leave our inseparableness to Charlotte Troball and Joanne Greeson.

I, Lloyd Miller, leave taking my banjo with me since there aren't any ole banjo pickers in the Junior Class.

We, Genevieve Ramsey, Ruth Stophel and Janet Cornett, bequeath our progressive dispositions to Jackie Heron, Brenda Brewer, and Sue Cross.

I, Harriet Caldwell, leave my position as best-looking girl to Judy Gose.

I, Roy Owen, Jr., leave my lovable friendship with the faculty to Ken Hardie.

I, Spookie Utleve, bequeath my "Cat Clothes" to Dick Parrott.

I, King Hagey, leave my honorable position as Class Legator to anyone who can keep his sanity; and my heart to Judy Caldwell.

Signed:

Legator: KING HAGEY

Finally - the

CLASS NIGHT

On Thursday night, June 2, 1955, the Senior Class of 1955 held their last class meeting in honor of the royalty of the class. Coy Langford, president, crowned the King and Queen in a very impressive ceremony. The King and Queen were preceded by the court.

The meeting was called to order by the president. The roll was called by the secretary, Lynda Denton.

We were entertained during the evening by Harry Gilmer, Class Historian; King Hagey, Class Legator; and Nick Caine, Class Prophet.

The meeting of the Senior Class was interrupted by Larry Canaday, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Junior Class, asking if the Class of '56 would be received. His wish was granted by the Senior President.

By candlelight and singing Auld Lang Syne, the Seniors left their class meeting and marched to the sides of the auditorium in a ceremony we will long remember.

The Junior Class, led by the King, and the Queen, followed by the royal court, class officers, and members of the Junior Class marched down the aisle to become the Senior Class of '56.

GRADUATION

With our hopes soaring skyward, we looked forward to our graduation. Our thrills and joys, yes, and even our tears, all combined to make graduation an unforgettable moment in the hearts of each of us. It is only the beginning of a new goal set before us and a new challenge which all must meet. We have looked forward to this day for many years; and at last it has finally arrived, bringing with it all the wonderful moments to be remembered always. We shall never forget the friends and fun we have had at Tennessee High, for the experiences which have helped to make us better citizens of our country and of the world.

The Key To Success...

We in the United States owe much of our high standard of living today—which we take so much for granted—to our American system of competitive free enterprise.

It is competition and free enterprise that enables us to have mass production, to have quality goods at low prices, to have full employment. Because of competition, improvements in thousands of products are constantly being made.

But such improvements and advancements are usually made possible by “key men” — men with imagination and determination to see their company and themselves get ahead—men who can work together in a friendly spirit of cooperation and teamwork among themselves, yet in the best spirit of competition and rivalry with their competitors.

Burlington Mills started 31 years ago as a small company with 200 employees. Today through the teamwork of its skilled, loyal employees —its “key men” — it has reached a position of unquestioned world leadership in the textile field.

Key men are what American business needs today. And the “key men” of the future are the men who, in their high school and college life today, see and take advantage of the opportunities for thorough training and preparation that will put them ahead in business and industry tomorrow.
